Commission Urges Changes In Interior Department

St. Patrick's Ball To Feature Dorsey

Doors at the Municipal Auditorium will open at 7:15 p. m. tonight for the St. Patrick's Night Ball sponsored by Kingston Uniformed Firemen's Association Local No. 461. Jimmy Dorsey and his famous orchestra will play for dancing and the all star stage show. The concert will begin at 8:20 p. m., and the stage show at 9 o'clock. Reserved section seats will be held until 9 p. m.

Divided Group Asks End of Wasteful Conflict; Seen as Necessity

Washington, March 17 (AP)—A sharply-divided Hoover Commission today urged major changes in the Interior Department to tighten efficiency and eliminate "disastrously wasteful conflict."

In a report to Congress studded with "dissents," abstentions," and "further views" by individual members, the 12-man commission proposed a vast expansion of the department to include all "major public works" projects.

If a similar proposal offered in 1924 had been followed then, the government, reorganization group declared, "hundreds of millions of dollars would have been saved to the public over these years," now, it added, "it is a complete necessity."

Three commissioners, headed by Secretary of State Acheson, the bi-partisan group's vice chairman, suggested replacing the Interior Department with a "department of natural resources."

But the majority turned that down and recommended instead including in the present department these functions:

1. Flood control and rivers and harbors improvement, now under the Army Corps of Engineers.
2. Public building construction and community service, now major functions of the Federal Works Agency.
3. Hospital construction, including the $1,000,000,000 veterans administration program and the hospital-building activities of the army and navy, but not the grants-in-aid program now under public health service.
4. Civilian airport construction on behalf of the proposed Bureau of Civil Aviation of the Commerce Department—again excepting grants-in-aid programs.

Under the plan, Interior would lose only the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Bureau of Land Management (except minerals), and commercial fisheries.

The Agriculture Department would go to the Commerce Department; and Indian Affairs would come under a new department for social security, education and Indian affairs.

The new department proposed by Acheson and Commissioners James K. Pollock and James H. Rowe, Jr. would combine the development functions of the army engineers with present functions of the Reclamation Bureau, as the majority proposed.

But it would exclude construction agencies and would set up a Forest and Range Service to take over the Forest Service the Bureau of Land Management and the research functions of the Agriculture Department.

A fourth member of the commission, retiring Secretary of Defense, said on Page Thirty-one.

The letter said that "in the case of the City of Kingston, I am pleased to advise you that the Experience Modification now amounts to a credit of 18.7 per cent, which means that the rates for compensation insurance for the city are 18.7 per cent less than Manual Rates."

"As you know the city also receives a premium discount credit which is in addition to the experience credit. Endorsements showing the proper return premium will be forthcoming at an early date."

A check for the $920.77 has been received. This saving, the mayor said, was made possible through the exercise of caution and carefulness of city employees in their work.

Milk Price to Drop
Trenton, N. J., March 17 (AP)—The minimum price paid New Jersey farmers per quart of drinking milk is slated for a one-cent drop April 1. The reduction was ordered today by Milk Industry Director Arthur F. Foran. It came as the result of a hearing March 10 at which producers, dealers and consumers testified. A spokesman for two major milk producers associations said the reduction, if granted, would be passed along to the consumer.

Eckert Gets Term At Dannemora for Assault With Gun

Father of 21 Children, 66, Was Arrested After 'Peppering' Man in September

Edward James Eckert, 66, of Marlborough, father of 21 children, was sentenced to a term of from two to four years at Clinton State Prison, Dannemora, on his plea of guilty to assault, second degree, Wednesday afternoon in County Court before County Judge John M. Castlin.

The charge grew out of the shooting last September 28, of Francis Johnson, 39, of Marlborough who was "peppered" with shot from a 12-gauge double barrel shotgun following an argument over the removal of screens from the house in which Eckert lived on Dock road, Marlborough. Johnson was struck in the arm.

A painter had been at work on the house owned by the Marlborough Manufacturing and Supply Company, of which Johnson's father was manager. An argument ensued over removal of screens from the windows and the painter sought out Johnson to make a complaint about the situation. Francis Johnson went to the house to intervene and was met by Eckert who was alone with a three-year old son.

When Eckert procured the shotgun Johnson attempted to run away when he heard the gun being cocked. He had gone only a short distance when the shot struck him.

Eckert at the time told the Troopers he had caught his shirt sleeve on the door knob and the gun had been accidentally discharged.

After the shooting Eckert barricaded himself in the house and refused to leave until his wife was brought home from a nearby farm where she was packing grapes. Eckert walked out one door as his wife entered the other and state police grabbed him as they charged. He was about to re-enter the house for the gun.

Since he has been in jail Eckert suffered an attack of illness and was operated upon for gall bladder trouble. He is practically blind and had to be assisted to and from the court room.

Wednesday afternoon through his attorney, Raymond Mino, who had been assigned, Eckert changed a former innocent plea to one of guilty to the second degree assault charge. Under the circumstances, District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn said that plea was acceptable and sentence was then imposed.

Roy James Wright, charged with having entered a summer place in the town of Denning, entered a plea of guilty to unlawful entry and was given a year in the county jail. Execution of sentence was suspended.

Wright was placed on probation. Probation will be transferred to Sullivan county where Wright resides at Monticello.

U.S. Desires Equal Place With Reds

Lawmakers Say if Soviet Delegates Will Be Admitted, We Should Get Same Break

Criticism Is Given

Wood and Mundt Ask Why Delegates Are to Be Welcomed

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Critical lawmakers said today that if Soviet delegates are to be admitted to this country for a "world peace conference," American should get equal treatment from Russia.

Several times in the past, Moscow has refused to let in congressional committees or individual lawmakers.

But the State Department said yesterday that 22 delegates from Russia and other Communist dominated nations will be allowed to attend a "peace" conference called by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. It will be held in New York beginning March 25.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee, said his group may look to the matter. Senators Mundt (R-S.D.) and Ferguson (R-Mich.) were critical of the State Department's action.

The department itself said in its statement that the Communist delegates surely will find it impossible to express any view "other than that dictated by the political authorities in Moscow." And it forecast that "Communists will attempt to use and manipulate the conference."

Wood said he would like to know why it was necessary to let in people when the government believes they are merely going to be Red puppets.

"We'll take up this matter, and others when we have a meeting tomorrow," he told reporters. "I don't know what can be done now, but we'll talk it over."

Asked whether a committee investigation will be assigned to keep an eye on the conference, Wood smiled and said:

"Well, we've usually had them at things like that in the past. The committee staff is reported to have been going over a list of foreigners who probably will come here for the conference. This check-up is understood to have shown that many are Communists or have strong Communist ties."

Shapley said those attending will seek to contribute to the establishment of the spirit of peace and that there is heavy need of great armaments and war."

Leaders Say Truman Program in Trouble

Budget Is Given Okay At Albany

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—The Legislature set its sights today on adjournment after voting overwhelming approval of Governor Dewey's $936,200,000 budget.

Although the governor's spending program—highest in the state's history—made intact through the G.O.P.-controlled Senate and Assembly yesterday, his proposal to increase taxes by $188,000,000 suffered a $48,000,000 slash.

This was the sum won by economy-minded Republican legislators from Erie and Westchester counties, whose rebellion against Dewey's leadership blocked legislation action for more than three weeks.

Besides approving the $936,200,000 asked by Dewey, the Legislature made minor changes in the budget which raised the total of appropriations to $937,063,052. This sum will be increased still further when the Legislature acts on the supplemental budget, still to be submitted.

The budget controversy over legislators talked of going home in about two weeks, probably sometime between March 30 and April 2.

At least three major pieces of legislation still await action. These are the Regents-sponsored Condon-Barrett bill which would deny the state university trustees control of state-supported colleges; a measure to create a sickness disability benefits program and a third bill to establish a statewide building code.

Democrats Are Repelled
Before final passage of Dewey's amended budget, Republican majorities in both Houses—routed at least temporarily—repelled all Democratic efforts to amend it further.

The minority party's amendments would have boosted the budget beyond Dewey's recommendations by increasing appropriations for education, child care centers and treatment of cerebral palsy victims.

The $48,000,000 tax cut means: A saving to motorists of an estimated $20,000,000 through abandonment of the one cent per gallon hike in the gasoline tax as asked by Dewey.

The personal income tax will be collected at 90 per cent of the full rate instead of 100 per cent as recommended by the governor. The 10 per cent "forgiveness" will save taxpayers about $28,000,000.

The 90 per cent collection of the full income tax rate represents a 50 per cent increase over actual payments in 1948, when collection was at 60 per cent of the full rate.

Of the 90 per cent rate, one-ninth (or 10 per cent of the full 100 per cent) will be earmarked to help pay off the state veterans' bonus.

The $48,000,000 cut from the tax program was made without a corresponding cut in appropriations.

To make up for this, or most of it, the budget was amended to permit the issuing of grade crossed elimination bonds approved by the voters in 1926.

May Not Issue Bonds
Considerable doubt has developed whether these bonds will be issued during the coming year. Both Senator Benjamin F. Feinberg, majority leader, and Senator Arthur H. Wicks, chairman of the Finance Committee, have said such a course may not be necessary.

Despite the tax cut, Dewey's budget is the largest ever. The $936,200,000 in appropriations topped by $124,200,000 the 1948-49 total of $812,000,000, a record in itself. Expenditures for the 1948-49 fiscal are estimated at about $784,000,000.

With $48,000,000 pared from the proposed $936,000,000 tax boost, the balance of $120,000,000 in new tax revenue will be raised as follows:

- 1—$86,000,000 through the income tax increase.
- 2—$33,000,000 by raising the corporate franchise tax one per cent to 5.5 per cent.
- 3—$100,000 by an increase in the pari-mutuel tax on harness racing. (This tax increase was passed in the Assembly but delayed in the Senate.)

It took all of yesterday afternoon to clear the budget through both Houses. The assembly wound up debate a short time after 6 p. m.

Governor Dewey started the legislative machinery rolling by sending emergency messages to both Houses enabling them to

GOP Women Plan To Attend Parley

Luncheon Will Be Held at Albany Hotel With Lawmakers

It was announced today, by Mrs. Bertha Connelly, president, that members of the Ulster County Women's Republican Club are invited Monday to attend the legislative conference in Albany, sponsored by the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs.

Those intending to make the trip may make reservations with her at her home, 142 Pearl street, not later than Friday so that all details can be completed concerning transportation and meals.

The conference is scheduled at the Hotel Ten Eyck, opening with a luncheon at 1 p. m. Testimonies will be given by Miss Ruth Minor, vice-chairman, Albany Republican County Committee; Assemblyman Oswald D. Heck; Mary Donlon, chairman of Workmen's Compensation Board; Senator MacNeil Mitchell, who will discuss civil service and veterans preference and Mrs. Betty Hawley Donnelly, vice president of New York State Federation of Labor and a member of the Board of Trustees of the State University.

Other prominent legislators and their wives have been invited to attend the conference.

Those who desire may remain for the night session of the Legislature which begins at 8 o'clock. Concerning transportation, President Connelly said that ladies intending to drive their own cars may offer rides to others who want to make the trip but have no autos.

Other announcements were about the next meeting of the Ulster county club which is scheduled for Thursday, March 24, at 8:30 p. m. and the organization's rummage sale.

The meeting will open later than usual for the convenience of members desiring to attend church first. Speakers will be Mary Donlon of the Workmen's Compensation Board and Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk.

Telegrams Are Sent to Democrats to Attend Meeting March 19

New York, March 17 (AP)—Possibility of a congressional inquiry was rumored today as New York city's Democratic representatives were summoned to an "all-important" conference with Mayor William O'Dwyer in the midst of the city's wiretapping investigation.

Telegrams sent out by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N. Y.) have called the congressmen to meet the mayor at City Hall Saturday.

The summons gave rise to reports—without official confirmation—that information on the extent of telephone wiretapping here would be laid before the congressmen.

Representatives of the offices of the U. S. attorney general and the U. S. attorney here are expected to attend the meeting.

GOP, South Will Rule Maneuvers

Coalition Has Things Well in Hand, Three Developments Disclose to Observers

'Won't Do' Plenty

T-H Law, Other Things Are to Be Shunned, Is Report

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Congressional leaders today conceded privately that the Truman program for the 81st Congress is in deep trouble.

It is clearly apparent, they told newsmen, that from now on a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats will call the tune on legislation despite the fact that Democrats have nominal control in both the Senate and the House.

The coalition rolled in high gear this week when (1) the House riddled the President's rent control bill with amendments, (2) the administration took a beating in the Senate on its filibuster fight and (3) a Senate committee shelved the President's nomination of Mon Wallgren to head the National Security Resources Board.

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts predicted that other major proposals of the President would fare just as badly.

"If they wait for Truman's program to be enacted, we'll be here when the snow flies in December, 1950," Martin told reporters.

The 81st Congress expires then and a new one will replace it in January, 1951.

Martin would not admit that there is such a thing as formal coalition in the House, but one of his lieutenants summed up the situation this way:

"It just happens that many of the Democrats in Congress see things eye to eye with the Republicans. This is particularly true of southern Democrats, who owe no allegiance to President Truman anyhow."

This party spokesman predicted that the House would not sharply modify the Taft-Hartley labor law, would not boost the minimum wage in industry to 75 cents, would not vote for federal aid to education, would not approve the President's pre-paid medical-health insurance plan, and would not enact a civil rights program.

There may, he said, be a boost to 65 cents in the minimum wage, some "moderate revisions" of the Taft-Hartley Act, a broadening of the social security program and "possibly" an anti-lynch law or an anti-lynching bill.

But there will be no anti-segregation legislation, he said. Senator Buckley (R-Ohio) commented that he expects "pretty tough going for the bulk of the President's program."

Democratic leaders would not admit for publication that they have lost control of legislation but said privately there is plenty of trouble ahead.

"The Republicans seem to want to write the record of this Congress," one Democrat commented. "If they do, they will have to run on it in next year's elections."

A leader of southern Democrats in the House put it this way: "The honeymoon is over. It didn't last as long as many people thought it would."

He, too, said there has been no formal understanding with the Republicans on administration proposals but added:

"It just happens that we stand for some of the things they stand for and we happen to be in the majority when we are counted together."

The kicking around Mr. Truman's program is getting may tighten his implied plan of going to the people to build a fire under Congress, he said Feb. 24 in a speech attacking "special interests" that "I may even get on the train again and make another tour around the country to tell the people how their government is getting on."

Forest Hills Folk Oppose Change

New York, March 17 (AP)—About 400 indignant residents of the Forest Hills section of Queens jammed the Board of Estimate chamber at City Hall yesterday in protest against a proposed zoning change which would permit the Bulova Watch Company to erect a Colonial type business building at Queens Boulevard and Yellowstone Boulevard, Queens.

The objections were presented to the city planning commission at its regular meeting which at times was enlivened by laughter and applause from the protesting group's interruptions of speakers who urged approval.

Former Corporation Counsel Paul Windels, representing a group known as "a committee to preserve residential areas of Forest Hills," described the proposed structure as a "factory" and contended that its erection would destroy the residential nature of the area.

Speaking in favor of the proposal were Reginald S. Hardy and Sanford H. Cohen, both representing the company; William Savacool, of the Queens Chamber of Commerce; Thomas P. Keurns, of the Flushing Chamber of Commerce; Miss Helen Hastings, a leader of the company's employee activities; and Dr. Howard A. Haskin, an authority on disabled veterans' rehabilitation work.

The planning commission closed the public hearing after listening to 19 proponents and 10 opponents of the measure.

The proponents told the commission the proposed building would not be detrimental to the area and said that several business structures presently exist in the neighborhood. They argued that the proposed structure would enhance property values rather than destroy them in the area.

The building would be set back about 40 feet, and for the most part, would be one-story high except the front portion, which would be two stories high, fronting on Queens Boulevard. About 1,200 persons would be employed in the building, which would have basement parking space for 300 automobiles.

Opponents included Councilman Hugh Quinn, Queens Democrat; Councilman Walter G. McGahan, Queens Republican; Hyman Ehrlich, of the Forest Hills Neighborhood Clubs and Jewish Center; Dr. Thomas Blomquist, of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church; the Rev. Father Christopher T. Molloy, pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Roman Catholic Church, Forest Hills; and Rabbi Joseph Darby of Rego Park Jewish Center.

the president, Mrs. James Swift. The devotions were led by Mrs. M. Teas who also had the Union Signal program. The members voted to pay their apportionment in the mid of quarters which is a feature of this year's W.C.T.U. activities.

Mrs. Albert Thompson, Mrs. F. L. Vail, Mrs. S. D. Farnham were entertained last week at bridge by Mrs. Thomas Sears. This week Mrs. Farnham entertains Mrs. Bruff Olin, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Sears.

School Superintendent Ralph Johnson presided at a meeting of 30 rural school teachers Tuesday afternoon in the Central School. Miss Frieda Dinger, Kingston, was the speaker with Reading as her subject.

Mrs. Mildred Percy and son, Richard, of Inwood, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Weed.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Farnham with Mr. and Mrs. John Randall of New Paltz are Friday evening dinner guests of Mrs.

Thomas Sears. Mrs. Randall, the former Mrs. Agnes Van Orden, was a teacher in the primary grades in the local school a few years ago.

The subject of the sermon by the Rev. Oscar Jelsina Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock will be, "Achievement or Rescue. The vessel service at 4 o'clock will be held in the Methodist Church with the Rev. Hincamp, Poughkeepsie, as guest speaker.

MEDICAL MANPOWER AMONG DP'S

The UN Economic and Social Council has asked the countries that admit European displaced persons to take in a higher proportion of DP's from the intellectual and professional classes. It noted that a recent international Relief Organization survey showed that most of these countries want manual workers and laborers, and that there are still more than 2500 "trained and skilled" physicians in DP camps.

The United States is said to be the only one of the more than a dozen countries which has encouraged doctors to resettle there. This seems rather odd since, although we have a shortage of doctors in this country, the need undoubtedly is less acute here than in most other nations in the resettlement program.

The situation, however, is difficult for some of the receiving countries as well as for the displaced physicians. Many of these countries, particularly in South America, need skilled workers and farmers as well as skilled doctors.

It may be short-sighted of their governments to accept a preponderance of the former. But it also may be that workers and farmers would find it easier to readjust and start earning a living than the professional men would. It is conceivable that in many countries and sections where medical care is most needed, the foreign physicians would be hard put to make a go of it unless they were on government salary.

There might be another difficulty in admitting displaced professional and scientific persons, again with special emphasis on doctors. Undoubtedly, there are younger men and women in this "trained and skilled" group whose training has been improper, according to accepted professional standards.

Many of them must have fled from countries that were under Nazi domination before they were seized by Russia or its agents. German scientific and medical training was notoriously unscientific under the Nazis. It was forced to conform to an unsound political and social philosophy. We know that Communist science, like every other aspect of Communist life, operates under similar restrictions.

This educational deficiency is not the fault of the displaced persons, so it should not bar them from admittance to a new country. But as a protection to the patient and, in a lesser degree, to the medical profession of a country, they should not be permitted to practice immediately. In some cases inadequate training, rusty from disuse, would have to be remedied.

Perhaps an interim program of education and non-practicing medical employment might be worked out. Certainly, in fairness to all concerned, the existing requirements for medical practice should be rigidly adhered to wherever displaced doctors are taken in.

Perhaps there could also be a plan for a non-compulsory assignment of the newcomers to areas where they are most needed, once their training is up to standard. It would be both unfair and unwise if, for example, the bulk of displaced physicians here should settle down to practice in New York City.

These are problems which the admitting countries would have to work out. They do not seem insoluble. In a world that needs more and better medical protection, surely some way can be found to give a useful life to these hundreds of physicians now penned up in DP camps.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

There is a movement, apparently stemming from religious connections, with the purpose of seeking peace by refusing to pay federal income taxes which would be used for support of the national defense establishment. The fact that a clergyman heads it recalls the instance last year when a group of nationally prominent clergymen signed a statement urging young men to defy the Selective Service law.

The number of people who have joined the tax resistance movement is infinitesimal. But

ARE BUSINESSMEN PEOPLE?
Louis H. Bean is one of the great economists of the administration. He has been around a long time, particularly in the Department of Agriculture. It is said these days that he exercises great intellectual influence over some of the so-called liberal senators who go to him for figures.

He was present at one of those jam sessions held by the National Industrial Conference Board at which economists discuss the economic state of the nation. At this particular conversation, the great minds were talking about the 1949 depression. Professor Malcolm P. McNair, of Harvard University, who devotes himself to marketing, had just got off this one:

"I feel that we are considerably more likely to have a recession than I thought we were before the election. But the elements of extreme vulnerability are not present, and numerous supporting factors are present which would likely check the course of such a recession perhaps by the end of 1949. Business should not get its tail between its legs, and crawl back into the doghouse. If it does, then not only are we bound to have serious industrial repercussions, but also such developments will probably hasten the time when we actually get into a shooting war."

Well, you can take that as you like. It was at this point that Louis H. Bean, the agricultural economist, asked the prize question:

"How is the general public responding to the election in terms of purchases? Is it a general consumer response or a business response? Businessmen, I take it, do not go into retail stores day by day as consumers in general do."

That struck me as very funny. Aren't businessmen people? Don't they eat, wear clothes, pay bills like anybody else? What does the learned Mr. Bean think a businessman is? John D. Rockefeller or something?

Of course, the businessman goes into retail stores. Maybe not every day like his wife who buys the supper and shoes for little Mary, but he buys a necktie, a box of cigars or a pack of cigarettes. He probably picks up a package for his wife or he may even let it not be more than whispered in gath—but a present for some pretty gal.

I know a lot of businessmen including our grocer. I also know some mighty big speculators who are generally called junk dealers. Among my acquaintances are the heads of the largest corporations in America and also some who continue to sell from pushcarts on the lower East Side of New York. They are all businessmen.

The smaller the businessman, the closer he has to calculate, because his reserves can swiftly be wiped out. For instance, I noted the other day that signs are going up, "Store to Let." That's a bad sign, sure. General Motors or General Electric may take hard times in their stride, but the little fellow who is selling ladies wear can't hold up between taxes, government-supported prices and consumer resistance. He gets squeezed out fast. In fact, here in New York, between Truman's taxes and Dewey's taxes, the little businessman doesn't know whether he's coming or going.

Near us is a family restaurant, by which I mean a place where about the same people eat every day. They have a new sign in the window saying that, by public request, they have added the soup and dessert to the entire price, which means that they have cut their prices. Also, the politeness has increased 100 per cent.

The people who eat there are businessmen, manufacturers of suits for ladies and gentlemen and children and all kinds of accessories. They are good businessmen and, as economists, they can give these specialists at the conference board lots of lessons. They have the advantage of being able to count without a thought machine. They know that if a dollar earns 10 cents after taxes, it is better than if it earns 15 cents before taxes. The economists have yet to learn that taxes are costs and that if the costs are too high, the public decides if and when it will stop buying. Ask any furrier what taxes did to him. Furriers are both businessmen and economists.

HEARING AIDS

It is gratifying to meet friends and acquaintances, formerly hard of hearing, who now meet you with a normal, not a questioning, expression on their faces because they are wearing properly fitted and suitable hearing aids.

Oculists and optometrists not only make sure of prescribing the proper lenses for the patient, but they also insist upon fitting the frames so that the patient obtains the angle necessary to give him the exact or proper vision through the lenses. Similarly, the otologist or hearing specialist, after making a complete examination of the patient's loss of hearing and the pitch necessary, prescribes the hearing aid best suited to the patient's needs. And just as the oculist or optometrist is most careful in adjusting the frame of glasses, so the otologist wants to make sure that the apparatus attached to the ear must fit the ear perfectly; if possible, a cast is made from which the plastic attachment is manufactured. If the ear piece does not fit properly, it can interfere with the clearness of sound.

In cases where the little bones of the middle ear drum are damaged and the sound is not transmitted properly to the little hairs or hearing nerve endings, then what is called a bone-conduction hearing aid is necessary to transmit the sound. In these cases the earpiece, called an oscillator, is attached to the mastoid bone, the large bony lump at the back of the ear.

As most hearing aids are made with amplifiers with three or four vacuum tubes, there is little to choose among them; but the fitting of the hearing aid is most important.

While no hearing aid can give the same degree or kind of hearing as natural hearing, yet with a thorough examination, tests with the audiogram and then proper fitting, a hearing aid must restore to the patient a sociable, practical and serviceable capacity without damaging his own present hearing ability.

The patient should not hesitate to return for adjustments just as he does for adjustment of glasses or artificial teeth.

they cannot be ignored, because they represent an idea. The idea, judging from their utterances, seems to be that their refusal to pay taxes is a kind of civil disobedience inspired by the achievements of the late M. K. Gandhi in India. No one would wish to detract from the greatness of Gandhi, but this is not India. Civil disobedience is only a euphonious name for anarchy, which cannot be tolerated here.

Observers in France claim that economic stability is on the way in that country. Some claim it is being held back from complete realization by political conditions alone.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round
By Drew Pearson

Washington—Uncensored diplomatic reports indicate that the Soviet government is planning to place before the United Nations the strange case of an American citizen reported to be the leader of the anti-Russian underground in Poland and Germany.

The mysterious American, who owns a farm twelve miles outside Hillman, Minn., operates under various names including Edward F. T'Kach, Count Heinrich Von Golbe, Baron von Tanther, Heinrich Woycho, Dr. Edouard von Rothkirch, or sometimes just Baron X.

According to associates, he is the head of the Frei Corps of Barbarossa, the name of the anti-Russian underground in parts of Poland and the Soviet zone of Germany. Baron X has raised considerable amounts of money in the United States and is reputed to have smuggled arms and ammunition into the Soviet areas via Austria and Scandinavian ports. He is also reported to have terrorized Soviet officials and been a constant thorn in the side of the Russian government in these areas.

U. S. officials have made it clear, however, that Baron X has no connection whatsoever with the U. S. government. On the contrary, they have frowned on his activities and fear he may cause serious trouble between the United States and Russia. For that reason, the State Department has consistently refused any passport. His wife, who was reached by telephone at Hillman, Minn., under the name of Mrs. von Rothkirch, said that her husband had left by car and was driving to New York. She said he went away for long periods of time during which she did not hear from him. She declined to comment on his activities in Germany except to say: "I know I don't like the Soviets have found out about him."

In Cleveland, one of von Rothkirch's lieutenants, Wilhelm Ulfenhorst-Zeichmann, said that von Rothkirch was head of the Frei Corps of Barbarossa, and that he had gone back and forth to Germany without an official passport. Other quarters reported that von Rothkirch had used in merchant seaman's papers.

The mysterious "Baron" served for a time with the German Luftwaffe in Spain during the Spanish revolution, then entered the U. S. Army after Pearl Harbor. For a time he also served as Chief of the U. S. Coast Guard in a temporary, nonpaying capacity. At that time he used the name T'Kach.

Where He Got The Money
In 1946, he registered under the name of Edward von Rothkirch as a lobbyist for the Central European Research Council, and was active on Capitol Hill among isolationist Congressmen and Congressmen of German descent. He was also connected in 1946 with the Central European Rehabilitation Association, with headquarters at 20 Division Avenue, Brooklyn, and headed by Father Don Otto, self-proclaimed Duke of Wurttemberg.

Some indication as to where Baron X has been able to raise his funds may be had from the fact that the assets of the Central European Rehabilitation Association in the Riggs National Bank jumped from $5 to $169,030 in less than a year in 1946-47. It is believed that some of these funds were drawn on to finance underground operations in Soviet areas in Central Europe.

Baron X is reputed to have the best intelligence service inside the Russian areas—despite the large amounts of money spent on intelligence by the U. S. government since the war. He is also reported to have intimate contacts inside Czechoslovakia, Austria and Hungary.

U. S. records show that von Rothkirch's father was born in Odessa, Russia, under the name of Fred T'Kach, and that his mother was also born in Odessa in 1897. Von Rothkirch himself was born in St. Paul, Minn.

Administration Finds Congress Doubts Truman Received 'Mandate' in Autumn to Approve President's Measures
By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 17 -- The Truman administration has discovered in the first two months of its present term that Congress does not think a "mandate" was given to approve whatever measures the President recommends, irrespective of their merits.

A coalition of Republicans and Democrats has served notice on the President that the present Congress is no rubber-stamp affair. This does not mean that every issue will find the coalition operating as it did on the filibuster problem but does mean that the age-old independence of the legislative body has been and will be asserted.

Mr. Truman did not come off half as badly, however, as some senators would imply. While it is logical for the Democratic leader, Senator Lucas, to attempt to shift the blame for the failure of the Senate to adopt a much more rigid formula than has been brought forth in the so-called compromise, there never was a time when more than a half-dozen senators were willing really to vote for cloture by majority rule.

So what finally emerges is a plan for a rule which requires a two-thirds vote to close debate on everything except another change in the rules. The compromise doesn't cut off civil-rights legislation at this or any other session. What is cutting off that prospect is the presence in the Senate of a one-third bloc composed of Southern Democrats and a few Republicans who do not favor federal intervention in the police authority of the states as guaranteed by the Constitution.

But the new rule does something which has not been accomplished since 1917. It applies cloture to all motions, whether they are motions "to take up" or motions on bills and measures. This is an administration victory, though it never would have been possible without the cooperation of many northern Republicans, including Senator Robert Taft of Ohio.

The fact that a coalition exists is a political fact of far-reaching significance. It is too much to say that the coalition will oppose all social-welfare legislation. But it is fair to assume that the same southern group which fought against the prospect of federal intervention in state matters will also vote against removal of that provision of the Taft-Hartley law which forbids both unions and corporations from making political contributions or expenditures. The unions want this repealed so they can spend millions of dollars of union dues and assessments to defeat the southerners in Democratic primaries. But it is not likely that the Southern Democrats will be parties to their own political destruction by overruling this feature of the Taft-Hartley Act.

On tax matters the coalition will prevail. On federal aid to education and in public-health legislation there is no reason to expect the coalition to be operative. The southerners, despite the misrepresentation made of their attitude in recent months because of the civil-rights controversy, voted for virtually all the New Deal proposals recommended by President Roosevelt with the exception of the measure designed to "pack" the Supreme Court of the United States so as to influence its decisions.

The Southern Democrats have as good a record on the social-welfare legislation of recent years as have the northern Democrats. The coalition, therefore, will come into action only when an attempt is made to introduce state socialism or to present measures that seek to establish unions as a power greater than the government itself or the other political party. Threats of intimidation do not sit well with the Southern Democrats. The chances are that on measures which are put forth by pressure groups and which are plainly radical, the coalition not only will assert itself, but will increase in strength.

The rejection by a coalition of Republicans and Democrats of the appointment of former Senator Wallgren to be head of the National Security Resources board is an example of what may happen on appointments, but generally speaking no new party has been created and the coalition is a composite of parties which are bound together temporarily and occasionally in a common cause.

AS PEGLER SEES IT
By WESTBROOK PEGLER

At the time of the ordeal of Cardinal Mindszenty Eleanor Roosevelt wrote that she was informed that he was "a reactionary, if not a Fascist, and a notorious anti-Semite." Her information was "a man who edits a publication that claims to be completely factual." She did not name the man who made these statements although she gave no reason why not. In publishing these statements and intimating that the informant was credible, Mrs. Roosevelt became their sponsor.

This woman has confessed that she formed a habit of brain-picking early in life and that by this fraudulent process she was able to pretend to be informed on subjects of which she was ignorant or ill-informed. It is true that she qualified this confession with a stipulation that she would not publish the information, but that is a self-serving statement which may be dismissed as a shrewd lie, for lying was another early habit of this conniving victim of squalid and degrading family influences. This venture of Mrs. Roosevelt into the campaign of anti-Catholic propaganda definitely puts her on the same side with the Daily Worker. Which would have been believed, was not about the time that she passed on, with her implicit endorsement, the statement that Cardinal Mindszenty was "a notorious anti-Semite." The Daily Worker published a two-column editorial box on page one, headed: "Mindszenty—Jew Hater."

There is reason to believe that her authority was George Seldes, a member of many Communist fronts and a notorious propagandist of the party line for many years. He also is a brain-picker, having lifted literary and political material from a colleague in the political stews of continental Europe, one Angelica Balabanoff, a founder of the Communist International. Dr. J. B. Matthews, the celebrated chief investigator of the old Dies Committee and a scholar, is authority for the statement, verified by committee records, that Seldes published in a book, issued under his own name as ostensible author, two articles which Balabanoff had entrusted to him for sale in the United States.

"Without Balabanoff's permission and without offering her any remuneration," Doctor Matthews reported, "Seldes included two of her articles in his book, falsely asserting in a footnote that she had written them for the book. Later, Seldes joined the staff of the New York Times. He ran another of Balabanoff's articles in the weekly. However, he revised her manuscript in a most shocking manner. His revisions made the article strongly pro-Stalin although he must have known that Balabanoff was bitterly anti-Stalin. (She had broken with Communism and reverted to Socialism.) Balabanoff sued Seldes and, eventually, on May 3, 1939, received from him an abject apology for his distortion of her writing."

For a time Seldes lived on the premises of Martha Dodd, the daughter of the pro-Communist professor whom Roosevelt sent to Berlin during the Hitler regime to make trouble between the United States and the Nazi government, which Dodd conscientiously did.

Questions-Answers
Q—What causes things to have weight?
A—The attraction of gravity. The weight of a body is the measurement of the mutual attraction that exists between the earth and that body.
Q—Does the temperature increase as you dig into the earth?
A—The bottom of a hole bored in the earth gets one degree hotter on the average, for each 60 feet of depth.
Q—When was the title Duke of Windsor created for King Edward VIII?
A—Edward VIII abdicated under date of December 11, 1936. The following day he left England as His Royal Highness, Duke of Windsor. The title was selected by the duke.
Q—Do coyotes ever band together?
A—Yes. The coyote shows great cunning in hunting its prey. When after jack-rabbits, a pair of coyotes will work together; antelope and deer they often hunt in packs, spreading themselves into a wide circle and endeavoring to exhaust the quarry.
Q—Why is the secretary-bird so called?
A—This bird derives its name from the crest of long feathers which bear a fanciful resemblance to the quill-pens that clerks once used and frequently stuck behind their ears.

The political associations of this woman and her husband are about the same as Seldes'. Her brother, the son of the pro-Communist agent planted in our diplomatic post in Berlin, was singled out by Congress for special distinction, being squeezed out of his job in the government service by payroll pressure. Later, this action was disallowed by the Federal Court on the ground of unlawful discrimination. He was not called upon to attack the Nazi defenses in the war which his father heartily provoked, an honor reserved for other young Americans who have been less bloodthirsty. In 1940, Seldes began publishing a party-line propaganda pamphlet called "In Fact." It purports to unmask villainies of the Catholic Church and other Christian sects. It has unqualified Jew-baiting, the invariable charge of all Communist publications against all opponents of Communism here and abroad. Its circulation is small and the obvious reason for the printing of this smear-sheet in schools and libraries is to make one copy serve many dupes.

Seldes is the author also of several anti-Fascist and anti-Catholic books.

I have a number of reasons for believing that Seldes is the man whom the Roosevelt woman cites as her "factual" authority. First, Seldes' publication next the ironic title of "In Fact." Next, Seldes moves in many of the same circles of the ideological underworld that she frequents. Their attitude toward truth is about the same and, more important, Mrs. Roosevelt's developing attitude toward the Catholic institution has been noted with naive surprise by several members of that clergy who should have known.

Finally, Seldes claimed to have been in Budapest in December and January and wrote articles which would seem to have been the basis of Mrs. Roosevelt's charges against the cardinal.

It is to be noted, of course, that the charges of reaction and Fascism, even if true, were derogatory only in the smear technique of this woman's political cult. I am proud to be included in the reaction against her and her husband and the graft which she and he practiced through exploitation of the presidential office. There is no reason at all for Americans to criticize a Hungarian, prelate or layman, for endorsing Fascism against Communism. Fascism in the extremity of revolution is the only appropriate means of resistance.

Seldes scurried to England when the United States entered the first war in 1917 and succeeded in ducking the draft by catching assignments as war correspondent with the A.E.F. There was a shortage of reporters because most other young Americans in Europe joined up. The job of war correspondent was safe and comfortable. No American correspondent was killed and only one was wounded in action.

Mrs. Roosevelt has been proposed as ambassador to France where Maurice Thorez, the Communist traitor, recently declared that French Communists had a duty to betray their country if and when Russian troops should invade France. She sometimes allays suspicion by sly but not necessarily harmful criticism of the traitors. 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Use Little Water

Fresh green peas should be cooked in the smallest amount of boiling water possible—so little that by the time the peas are tender almost all the water will be evaporated and it will not be necessary to drain them. For a flavor change, add a few chopped sautéed mushrooms to the peas and serve with a cream sauce; dust lightly with paprika for an attractive garnish.

Amendments Are Placed on Dockets

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—Amendments to the Halpern-Milmo bill to provide $40,000,000 in new public school state aid in each of the next two years were before the Legislature today.

The measure, as originally introduced by Senator Seymour Halpern of Queens and Assemblyman Wheeler Milmo of Canastota, both Republicans, would have given approximately $20,000,000 to schools this year, and $60,000,000 next year.

These amounts are in addition to the $41,600,000 mandated in increased state aid this year under the 1948 Feinberg Law.

Milmo said the changes were made to "meet some objections" to the original measure. He declined to elaborate.

It was understood, however, that the revised measure will have a better chance to win the approval of Governor Dewey's administration. The funds in the Halpern-Milmo bill will be used to increase the basic state aid formula for public schools without the funds being earmarked for specific purposes.

Governor Dewey has provided an extra $40,000,000 over the mandated $41,600,000 in his new budget for state aid for school, but he has indicated he wants the extra money earmarked for school construction.

Capitol observers say that if Dewey can be won over to the revised measure, the possibility of an uprising among Republican legislators especially in the Assembly, over the state aid problem will disappear.

Several assemblymen have served notice they intend to press for new state aid under the formula, and not necessarily for school construction, in spite of what stand the governor takes.

Under the amendments, which were filed yesterday, certain localities would receive approximately $24,000,000 of their next year's payment three months earlier than they normally would under the old bill.

Added to the $16,000,000 they are scheduled to receive this year, their total for the year would be $40,000,000. They will get another $40,000,000 next year.

Milmo said the amendments would not change the total amount of money the schools would receive, but merely would spread the funds equally over the two-year period.

Britain and Medicine

London, March 17 (AP)—No one outside the general public expected a miracle to happen between July 4 and July 5 last year, when Britain launched its immense state medicine program.

The odds were heavily against it because, as the Ministry of Health pointed out, the country still was suffering from a pre-war hangover of inadequate medical facilities and a shortage of doctors, nurses and dentists. The war aggravated that condition.

It will take years, therefore, before the scheme can be judged impartially as a whole.

When the state described the benefits of the new health program to the public, its leaflets cautioned the service would be available "as national resources allow."

Hospitals had difficulty meeting calls on their services even before the health system started functioning.

The country was short of 45,000 nurses. London hospitals alone had 33,000 patients waiting for admission. Patients suffering from tuberculosis sometimes had to wait a year or even two before they could be admitted into sanatoria. Surveys showed a shortage of 100,000 hospital beds.

Too Few Specialists
In some branches of medicine there were too few specialists. This, in turn, affected the operation of the hospitals as well as the training of students.

One answer, of course, was to train more doctors. As the facilities expand and restrictions are overcome more doctors will be trained.

At present, there is roughly one doctor for every 2,000 Britons, a satisfactory situation except that the distribution is uneven.

Medical students numbered 11,500 in July 1948, 27 per cent or 2,875 of them women. This compares with 8,823 in 1938, of which 15 per cent were women.

Much of this increase is due to the assistance given for study to ex-servicemen by the state. Last year 2,840 young students were receiving state scholarships at the universities. In 1938, there were only 20.

But a doctor's training is a long term proposition requiring at least five years. Many fall by the wayside.

Many educators believe that medical education will prove a boon to the state of medicine. "The state offers security to the young doctor," they say. "You can't practice medicine with financial worries."

At the same time the increase in students puts an extra burden and responsibility on the colleges to train only those who have a real vocation. As one educator says, hospital teaching staffs must be more on their guard now than ever before to weed out the young man who thinks "medicine is a good racket now—it'll always bring in $4,000 a year."

Others Are Attracted
Better wages and improved working hours and conditions also are attracting more full time hospital nurses and midwives.

Even the medical profession expects an improvement in Britain's hospital system, which it says was "in a mess" before the national health service started.

"Hospitals didn't know how to make ends meet," a British medical association spokesman said.

"The state unified the system."

"The hospitals now are state supported. Before, they were dependent in the main on endowments, private contributions and charity drives. The latter have been forbidden by the state."

By freezing the hospitals from everyday running operations, which were cutting up endowment funds, the state released much of this money for medical research.

At St. Bartholomew's Hospital, dating from 1123 and Britain's oldest, an endowment pool of $400,000 now is released for research.

The state had made special provisions for the remuneration of specialists and to reward them for merit and superior skill. Discussions still are going on, however, between the Ministry of Health and the profession, to determine exactly how the awards should be applied and to make necessary adjustments, retroactive to July 5, 1948.

As it stands now, full time and fully qualified specialists are to be paid in a range from $6,000 a year to $20,000 a year. These payments are in terms of 1939 values and are subject to a biennial allowance to reflect present conditions.

given them such privileges as freedom from arrest on criminal and civil charges and freedom from customs inspection of their baggage—but the State Department turned that down.

Instead, the delegates will get "intermediate" visas, which provide "added recognition" but not diplomatic immunity, the department said.

The department noted in its announcement that Russia often has turned down visa requests from Americans. But it said this country decided to permit entry of the Soviet delegates "because of its unswerving devotion to freedom of information and speech on any issue, however controversial it may be."

However, five Hungarian delegates who asked for visas didn't get them because of that country's treatment of American officials.

New Rape Law
Passes in Senate

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)

A conviction for assault with intent to rape could not be found solely upon the testimony of a woman under terms of a bill passed 49 to 3 by the Senate today.

The measure, introduced by Senator James F. Fitzgerald, Democrat of St. Albans, provides: "No conviction can be had for assault with intent to commit rape upon the testimony of the female upon whom such an attempt was made, unsupported by other evidence."

The bill now goes to the Assembly.

Says Boy Was Unhurt

Raymond H. Willmott of Stone

Jung Says Sweden
Unable to Defend
Self if Cut Off

Stockholm, March 17 (AP)—L.

Gen. Helge Jung, commander-in-chief of Sweden's armed forces, said last night Sweden could not defend herself if she were cut off from supplies from the west.

He said in a speech at Kristianstad that geography binds Sweden "inseparably" with Norway and Denmark. He said he hoped a defense alliance could be worked out between the three Scandinavian nations "before it is too late."

The general's statement was looked on here as another indication of disagreement between top military leaders and the government on Sweden's official position of neutrality.

Norway has aligned herself with the North Atlantic Defense Alliance and Denmark is expected to do so soon. Sweden has steered clear of any military agreement with the western democracies, although some high sources have predicted she, too, will join within six months.

waive the three-day waiting period normally required before amended bills can be considered.

Of major legislation still awaiting action, by far the most controversial is the Condon-Barrett bill to block the state university trustees from taking from the Regents' control of existing state-aided colleges April 1 as scheduled.

The bill, as did the budget, will present a challenge to the leadership of Dewey who is backing the trustees he appointed last summer.

Two Republicans, Senator William F. Condon of Yonkers, one of the Westchester tax insurgents, and Assemblyman Elisha T. Barrett of Brightwaters, introduced the measure. This issue faces a showdown next week.

Record of Birth
Would Have Saved
Mother Disgrace

Boston, March 17 (AP)—The sin that shocked a frightened mother into holding her 13-year-old illegitimate son in captivity most of his life might have remained secret forever had she recorded his birth.

City Registrar Michael J. Manning said that if Mrs. Ann Sullivan had recorded the child's birth no one would have known of the illegitimacy "except herself and the reputed father."

"The child of a married woman is legally presumed to be the legitimate offspring of her husband," Manning said. "All Mrs. Sullivan had to do when Gerald was born was to declare that she was married at the time—which she was."

Police said the shock of the indiscretion apparently drove the woman into hiding the child in a barren room for the greater part of his life.

But the 45-year-old mother insisted the boy had the freedom of the house, although, she said, he was not allowed to go out. She thought that if he lived a normal life neighbors would learn her secret and it would reflect on her two strapping Marine Corps sons and a daughter.

The woman admitted, police said, that the child was conceived and born while she was separated from her husband, who is still missing. Gerald's father is dead.

An official of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children expressed doubt today that the boy had never been outside the house until he was found in the street Sunday night.

"This boy, in my opinion, has been out with people," said Robert Mumford, secretary of the society. "He talks and responds in excellent English and his vocabulary is surprising."

Mumford said a doctor's examination showed that the boy was in "better physical condition than a majority of youngsters who come to the home."

"He has no real nutritional deficiency," the society official said. "The doctor doesn't even think he has rickets."

The report seemed to bear out the mother's insistence that he was well fed. Gerald began his schooling today in a society shelter where about 20 other youngsters are confined. He can not read or write. But officials expressed the belief he will advance rapidly. They described him as a responsive youngster with "fine possibilities."

Operation Cowlift

Hot Shot, a cow belonging to Ray Kaufman, upper right, Halstead, Kan., farmer, doesn't care for the mechanical age. While being hoisted for the first time with a new milking machine, Hot Shot had enough of modern civilization and bolted upstairs to the hayloft. It took three men to hobble her and give the cow her first trip in the air.

from Washington yesterday, declined to tell newsmen the purpose of the meeting. The telegrams were reported reliably to say "this conference is all-important. Do not fail to attend."

Soon after the conference call went out, a spokesman for Mayor O'Dwyer said:

"We want an investigation of all the wiretapping in the city of New York, including that which involves bribery and extortion, not only among public officials but among the idle rich of Park avenue."

The spokesman, William J. Donaghy, O'Dwyer's executive secretary, said the mayor is determined "that everyone in this city who has tried to crucify him shall be crucified in turn."

Asserting that O'Dwyer seeks "blood for blood," Donaghy added:

"We want some so-called good government gentlemen exposed for what they are. The Park avenue boys have made a gutter fight of it, and we will come down to their level and battle them there."

Mayor O'Dwyer has been scheduled as a witness before a special grand jury investigating the alleged wiretapping plot against the city administration.

The mayor may testify tomorrow, District Attorney Frank S. Hogan announced late yesterday. The grand jury was in recess today.

Police Commissioner William P. O'Brien and Chief of Detectives William T. Whelan also will be called before the jury.

Mayor O'Dwyer—former policeman, city magistrate and district attorney—revealed the alleged plot early last Saturday during an all-night inquiry at city hall.

The mayor and police officials are expected to tell the grand jury about the all-night questioning of Kenneth Ryan, a former city detective and a wiretapping expert, and Edward M. Jones, former U. S. Treasury Department agent.

Ryan, who leaped through a city hall washroom window during a lull in the questioning and was missing for two days, has been arrested on a charge of wiretapping, which is a felony if done without a court order. Also, he has been indicted on a charge of escaping from custody, and is free in $7,500 bail. Ryan is accused of tapping the home telephone of Hugo E. Rogers, Manhattan borough president and leader of Tammany Hall.

Jones, who is said by authorities to be cooperating in the investigation, was released last night in $2,500 bail as a material witness.

The police commissioner has said that Ryan and Jones were hired by an attorney for Clendenin J. Ryan, multi-millionaire foe of Mayor O'Dwyer.

Clendenin Ryan, who is no relation to Kenneth Ryan, has denied any complicity in the alleged plot to tap the phones of the mayor and 75 other officials. The millionaire is a leader of a fusion movement to fight the mayor if he seeks re-election next fall.

Clendenin Ryan appeared before the grand jury yesterday for the third straight day.

At police promotion exercises yesterday, the mayor by implication injected into the heated controversy the political and financial activities of Thomas Fortune Ryan, grandfather of Clendenin Ryan.

"You men come into your new duties at a time when it is evident that the yellow dog funds of corruption in Croker's time are still around," O'Dwyer told the police officials.

The Croker O'Dwyer referred to was "Boss" Richard Croker, leader of Tammany Hall 40 years ago. Publicly wealthy Thomas Fortune Ryan has been accused of being among the chief financial powers who backed Croker and received valuable city franchises and privileges in return for his support.

Taken at the mayor's reference, Clendenin Ryan replied angrily: "If Mayor O'Dwyer's best tactic of the day is to belittle the memory of my grandfather then the mayor's weakness in this fight is greater than I had anticipated."

Ryan said that his grandfather's record is defended by "history books" and needs no other defense. He accused O'Dwyer of attempting to belittle current issues by shifting the "battleground."

T.H. Talks Canceled

The regular open house program scheduled for tonight by the American Labor Party at 277 Fair street has been canceled because the speaker on the Taft-Hartley law cannot attend. Notification was given too late for procuring a substitute. Headquarters will be open Friday from 6 to 9 p. m. for the convenience of shoppers.

The mayor and police officials are expected to tell the grand jury about the all-night questioning of Kenneth Ryan, a former city detective and a wiretapping expert, and Edward M. Jones, former U. S. Treasury Department agent.

Ticket Chairmen Named for Annual Men's Breakfast

Ticket chairmen for the various member clubs of the Federation of Protestant Men's Club were announced today by Paul E. Barnum, Federation secretary, in connection with the annual Communion service and breakfast which will be held Sunday, April 3, at the St. James Methodist Church.

Those in charge of tickets follow:

Donald Weeks, Clinton Avenue Methodist; John Phelan, Reformed Church of the Comforter; William Newkirk, Fair Street Reformed; Lee Powell, First Baptist; James Little, First Reformed Dutch Church; William McClellenn, First Presbyterian; Aaron Gray, Glenford Community; Edward Bil-you, Ponckhockie Congregational; Lester Ferguson, Port Ewen Reformed; Ernest Ryan, Evangelical.

Lutheran Church of the Redeemer; Ralph Harrison, St. James; Charles Bahr, St. Paul's Lutheran; and Al Nonnemacher, Trinity Lutheran.

In announcing the chairmen today, Secretary Barnum advised that all members should secure tickets at once as the capacity will be limited for those attending the breakfast.

"All men of the community are cordially invited to attend the communion service which starts at 7:30 a. m.," Secretary Barnum stated, but added that "tickets must be secured for the breakfast which follows." According to plans, it is expected that there will be seating capacity for 400 men at the breakfast.

Another feature of this year's program will be the singing of "The Last Chord" by Sullivan by a group of the local Mendelssohn Club. The vocalists will be under the direction of Vernon S. Miller, assistant director of the Mendelssohn Club.

Final plans for the service and the breakfast will be completed next Monday night during a meeting of the Federation delegates at the First Presbyterian Church. The meeting will start at 8 p. m. All delegates are requested to know at that session if additional breakfast tickets are required.

Hearings Are Called

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has called hearings for April 5 in the first two of the cases brought by newspaper publishers and commercial printers against the closed shop drive of the A.F.L. International Typographical Union. N.L.R.B. trial examiners have held that the union violated various Taft-Hartley Act provisions by efforts to hold onto the traditional closed shop arrangements. The hearings scheduled were those involving the union and the Graphic Arts League of Baltimore, and the Nassau Daily Review Star of Rockville Center, Long Island. The Graphic Arts case will be heard in the morning and the newspaper case in the afternoon.

300 Homeless in Town

Citizens of the little farming town of San Juan Huasteca, Mexico, were in the midst of celebrating the festa of the Patron Saint when the fire came. Rockets were soaring, in a fireworks display. Suddenly, flames broke out, spreading rapidly to homes of the residents, leveling 90 of them, with all their contents. The fire then attacked the bodegas where they had warehoused the results of the season's crops. All the corn and beans were destroyed and 800 people were left homeless. Now, a delegation headed by Eugenio Santos Reyes, having made their way to Mexico City by playing music and passing the hat, are asking the President for federal aid.

Eye-Lash Dye Popular

Eye-lash dyeing threatens to become as popular as hair dyeing shop operators in London say. Women are paying $3.25 a time to have non-descript lashes dyed black, dark brown or midnight blue. If they are conscientious they have their eyebrows dyed to match. The color made from a harmless vegetable product, is renewed after six weeks. "No woman seems to want golden lashes, however blonde her hair," said a hairdresser. "The darker the lashes the bigger the eyes look and what woman wants to make her eyes look smaller?"

Fishing on Main Street

When a fish-loaded pickup truck collided with an automobile, the truck overturned and a Washington intersection was a-splatter with catfish, en route to a Baltimore, Md., market. No one was hurt in the accident. Passersby who helped the driver gather up his fish were duly rewarded.

TB Association To Observe 40th Birthday May 24

The Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, reaching its 40th anniversary on May 24, will celebrate on that date with an evening dinner meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Philip T. Schantz, chairman of the committee on arrangements, said today it is expected that George J. Nelbach, consultant of the New York State Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health, and Dr. Robert Plunkett, director of the Tuberculosis Division, New York State Department of Health, will be the speakers. Both men helped organize the local organization in 1909.

The local association was formed after an educational campaign of a week in Kingston conducted by Mr. Nelbach, who had set up headquarters at the state armory on Broadway, according to Katherine M. Murphy, executive secretary of the association.

As a result of the work of Mr. Nelbach and Dr. Plunkett, a "committee on prevention of tuberculosis" was set up here with Joseph M. Fowler as president. Other members of the first board of directors, were E. F. MacFadden, vice-president; Dr. Mary Gage Day, secretary; W. D. Hale, treasurer; Isaac Weiner; the Rev. Richard L. Burtzell; A. Dedrick, and Miss Mary Isabella Forsyth.

The committee on arrangements for the May dinner, headed by Philip T. Schantz, includes Mrs. Joseph Deegan, Miss Emily Rice, Gus Modjeska, Herbert E. Thomas and Ira V. D. Warren.

M. D. Reiss Dies

New York, March 17 (AP)—Morris D. Reiss, 63, former assistant U. S. district attorney here and one-time state assemblyman, plunged to his death today from the window of his eighth floor hotel room in Brooklyn. Reiss' body was found on a third-story extension roof below his room at the Hotel Pierpoint. Police, after an investigation, said he "jumped or fell" from the window.

HERE IS ANOTHER GREAT EXAMPLE OF HOW WARDS SAVES YOU MONEY

Top Writers Dissent

By FRANK TRIPP

There is an American Writers Association, Inc. Its president is Rupert Hughes; its vice-president, Fulton Oursler. On its roster are many of America's foremost writers.

Its members met the other day and unanimously passed a resolution which concerns every American who reads, looks or listens.

Their action was the result of the Hollywood writers contempt proceedings. Wherein the movie writers and the executive council of the Authors League, of which they are a part, have attacked the constitutional power of Congress to investigate subversive and propaganda activities.

The American Writers Association holds that Congress not only has such power but that it is one of its duties.

The Writers Association will intervene on the side of Congress in support of the action taken against 10 Hollywood writers. Who are held in contempt for refusing to answer questions about their affiliations with subversive organizations.

THIS is a reassuring decision. It means that there are writers in America who cannot stomach the kind of leadership that barbers their souls without their consent. The League never submitted its cause to the membership of its affiliates.

Every unionist should be interested in the position which the top flight writers have taken. They deny the right of a union to control their opinions or their writing. Ideas and words are the tools of their craft. They demand individual right to say how, where and when they shall use them.

Of the right of Congress to uncover destructive movements and subversive philosophies among writers, these writers themselves say: "We hold that the threat to our form of government and to the Bill of Rights itself from such activities, whether by writers or others, is the direct and urgent concern of the American people and their Congress; that we as writers, sharing this common concern should aid in the preservation of freedom of speech and press by supporting the House Committee on Un-American Activities in its efforts to identify and expose the extent, character and objects of subversive and propaganda activities in all fields; and that writers and artists should not be cloaked with any special immunity in this respect."

OF ALL PLACES where Communism can bore with devastating result, none approaches the literature we read, the radio we hear, the movies we see, the lessons our children learn. All of these are basically professional in origin.

A saboteur may wreck a vast industrial plant. But that is brick, mortar and machinery which can be restored.

If the time ever comes when any organization can enforce a formula of thought, opinion and restraint upon the creators of all that we read, see, hear or learn—then that is the end.

The end of us; as surely as it has come to those whom we strive to rescue from regimentation of body, soul and mind.

The American Writers Association sees this clearly.

Stichman Cites

over management of the development, the board of directors of the housing company, at Commissioner Stichman's suggestion, has appointed an administrative committee composed of twenty-one of the co-operators to supervise the construction and plan for future operations. The administrative committee, in turn, sent a questionnaire to all the co-operators to determine what special training and skills they possessed, and subcommittees, in turn, have been set up to help in the management.

For instance, Irwin Smith of 107 Hopkinson avenue, Brooklyn, a structural draftsman, was made chairman of the committee on possible changes in the construction of the project to meet special needs of owning families. This committee will determine what changes requested by the co-operators are feasible, whether they can be made at reasonable cost without undue delay in construction, and whether they will be beneficial to the majority of the co-operators. This information will be submitted to the Board of Directors for its guidance.

Edward Kramer of 1235 Grand Concourse, Bronx, assistant manager of Local 99 of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, who has had much experience with cooperative organizations, has been named head of the cooperative research and education committee.

Harold R. Hochvert of 1208 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, who is in the advertising business, was named chairman of the information and news bulletin committee and Leonard Goldstein of 222 Fern street, Brooklyn, an accountant familiar with the business of co-operators laundries, was named chairman of the washing machine and refrigerator committee. It is contemplated that coin-operated washing machines will be installed at the project.

S. L. Zeldin of 220 East Kingsbridge Road, Bronx, who is a purchasing officer for a Federal agency, has been named chairman of the cooperative purchases committee.

To head the rules and regulations committee, which will aid in the drafting of regulations necessary for the proper care and maintenance of the huge project, and in

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

...WITHOUT A WORD OF EXPLANATION, A STRANGE CHARACTER RUSHES INTO HILDA GRUBBLE'S HOUSE AND GRABS A RECORD OFF THE PLAYER.

TAKE IT EASY, FELLA! I'LL GET YOU A NICE COMFORTABLE STRAITJACKET!!

FALL RIGHT, START EXPLAINING! IF YOU AREN'T NUTS, WHAT ARE YOU?

I OISH OUT PATTY-AT THE LOCAL KIDNAPER KITCHEN!

BELLS, MAN! AREN'T YOU HERE TO HAT, LICKS AND THE KAT'S COMPANION?

THAT'S RIGHT, BROTHA! NOW GIVE ME THAT RECORD!

COPE, THIS BY NEA SERVICE, INC. N. Y. C. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The project is being built by Roth-Schanker, Inc., with funds made available under an F.H.A. guaranteed mortgage granted by the Bowery Savings Bank. James Feit & Co., Inc., of 382 Fifth Avenue, Manhattan, have been aiding in connection with management problems.

As a result of an agreement among Commissioner Stichman, Mayor O'Dwyer and Queens Borough President James A. Burke, the project will be exempted from taxes on the value of the new construction for a stated period of years, but taxes will be paid on the land value.

"This great housing development is good evidence that the threatened slackening in the building of homes for wage earners need not take place if families in need of housing are willing to join together to help themselves," Commissioner Stichman said.

A photostatic copy recording the honorable discharge of Edward Harnest Froehlich from the U. S. Navy, was found at John and Crown streets into Wednesday afternoon and turned over to Officer Gerald Every. The police took the papers with the U. S. Army County Veterans Service Bureau, 32 Main street. The document lacked Froehlich's address.

Observers estimate no Far East enemy could project a serious surface threat in the Pacific. Slim as American forces there are, they could muster in 24 hours enough to cope with any potential naval threat to the west coast, they say.

The Russians are reputed to have many German-developed "Schorkle" type highspeed submarines, but the feeling here is that they lack experience in submarine operations comparable to that of the U. S. Navy.

In the war against Japan, U. S. Navy undersea operations were outstandingly successful—and the navy is not cutting down on its Pacific submarines.

Pearl Harbor remains a full-scale submarine base. If the time ever should come for a counter-blow, the Pacific submarine force certainly would strike swiftly.

New York, March 17 (AP)—Eleven industrial and government experts left yesterday for an international conference in London on the world's rubber production and consumption. They were among 802 passengers sailing on the United States Lines' America.

Donald D. Kennedy, chief of International Resources Division of the State Department, said 14 countries will send delegates to the meeting. Russia and its satellite states will not be represented, he added.

The manhole cover to the rear of Reade's Kingston Theatre on Crown street gave way as Officer Ernest Bartroff stepped on it Wednesday afternoon and the officer suffered slight leg injuries as he fell into the opening. He resumed duty following treatment of the injuries.

Favors Roosevelt

New York, March 17 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer says nothing "would please me better" than to see Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. elected to Congress. Roosevelt, lawyer son of the late president, has announced his candidacy for the 20th Congressional District seat left vacant by the death of Rep. Sol. Bloom, a Democrat. The district is on Manhattan's west side.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, March 16—Indications are that there will be a big crowd out for the St. Patrick's Day dance in Odd Fellows Hall Thursday evening. Both round and square dancing will be enjoyed at this affair which is sponsored by the Olive Democratic Club.

Jesse Shuler, Sansonville War 1 veteran and G.O.P. stalwart of long standing, now has his sawmill located on the North Barringer mountainside woodlot back of the village. "Jesse" is currently getting out mostly oak for bridge planing and other uses, his sawyer being VanTassel Quackenbush.

Walter Lasher was numbered among the hustling young Kingston business men seen on our streets Tuesday. The Old Timer when recently interviewed in the course of one of his periodical trips to the village, declared that he will not recognize the demise of Old Man Winter until along about March 25. O.T. says he was around here in 1888, and still is mindful of the big sugar which Mother Nature handed out in late winter of that year; he recalls that one man in his 70th year worked his quarry every day during February. Moreover, Old Timer's great-uncle, whose sugar bush was a little way down the brook from the present Arthur Lindal home, deceived by the mild weather of the 27th, tapped 22 of his big maples and the following day the mercury plummeted to 4 above zero. Sap quit running, of course, and by March 12 the entire bush, except the trees—buckles, sap-house and all—had been buried by the grand-daddy of all blizzards. A U. S. passenger train was stalled four days in a cut below Olive Branch and one Shokan family lived on beans three days, our ancient friend asseverates (and we know him for a truthful man).

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Terwilliger returned the latter part of the week from Florida where they had gone on a vacation trip. They reached their destination Wednesday, found awaiting them a telegram announcing the bad news of the destruction of their tenant property by the fire of March 6, and headed their car for the return trip home that same day. The Terwilligers feel much grieved over the loss of the house which had been the family home previous to its conversion to rental quarters some 18 years ago. Contrary to earlier report, the burned house was built for the most part of new lumber, only a few seasoned heavy timbers having been taken from razed buildings in the old village. Although the late Abram Terwilliger, a former supervisor of Olive, had planned to utilize seasoned material from one of the west side village's largest houses, in the construction of his home at Ashokan, he later decided upon new lumber for the purpose.

Miss Betty Gruber, of Kingston, spent Sunday at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmendorf, returning home by the Monday morning school bus. A. J. Eldred, of Bellows, pastor of the local O. S. Baptist Church, recently preached at Cobleskill and visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cantwell, in Roxbury. Still another booklet of historical and sentimental interest to reach the column desk is a reader's copy of "The Catskill Mountains," being a 180-page illustrated descriptive work put out by the Ulster & Delaware Railroad in 1901. Printed on heavy white paper and having scores of pictures of natural scenery, boarding-houses and so forth, the book is a mine of valuable information on the area (Kingston to Ontonagon) tapped by the U. & D. when the summer boarding business (and the railroad's too) was in its hey-day. Hundreds of boarding places, together with their ownners are here listed, and the volume is replete with valuable data pertinent to the "Ontonagon" as the Indians called our mountains (the text spells it "Ontiora," which may, or may not, be correct). Of Shokan we read: "The mountains are now closing in upon you. In fact, this is often called the Gateway of the Catskills." (And that's true,—this writer recalls the very inscription on the first souvenir post cards of nearly 50 years ago).

Homer Silkworth, son of the late Harvey and Mattie (Shell-ner) Silkworth of Shokan, is now living in Syracuse where he is still engaged in electrical work. Homer, who formerly was well-known around Port Ewen and Kingston, is reported to be a grandpa now, his daughter being the mother of a child born about a year ago.

Shokan, March 17—Jaco Every, who died Sunday at his home in Mt. Tremper, was well-known to many of the older residents of the town of Olive where he was born and brought up. He had been a resident of Shandaken since early manhood. "Jaco," as Mr. Every was familiarly known in several mountain towns, was the survivor of four brothers, the others being Martin J., Edward and William D., all of whom resided in or near Shokan. His father, John Every, operated the farm at the west end of the Cold Brook wagon bridge which had been in possession of the family for many years.

Radioactive Iodine-131, which is being tried for treatment of cancer of the thyroid gland, loses half its radiating power in eight days.

Fire Prevention Pays Off
Ellsworth, Mich. (AP)—Because old Peter Wieland believes in getting in the first punch, the village of Ellsworth hasn't had a fire in nearly three years. Wieland, the 74-year-old fire chief of this tiny northwestern Michigan community, explains it this way: "Fighting fires is like boxing—the fellow that gets in the first hard punch usually wins. A small fire is easier to put out than a big one, and preventing one is easiest of all. That's what we've been trying to do in Ellsworth—prevent fires." Although Chief Wieland's aim is by no means unique, people of the village of Ellsworth proudly think his record is.

BARBECUE SAUCE SPARKS SPARERIBS

Spareribs taste even better with barbecue sauce.

By GAYNOR MADDON
NEA Staff Writer

With pork prices lower, barbecued or spiced spareribs fit easily into the family budget menus.

Barbecued Spareribs

(2-4 servings)

Two pounds spareribs, 2 tablespoons kitchen bouquet, 8-ounce can tomato sauce, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 clove garlic, minced, 1/2 cup finely diced onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon horseradish.

Have meat dealer split ribs. Cut in serving size pieces. Brush pieces on both sides with kitchen bouquet. Place ribs, meat side up, on shallow baking dish and bake, uncovered, in moderate oven until browned, about 30 minutes. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over ribs. Cover and cook for about 20 minutes, turning ribs once. Remove cover and continue baking until meat is tender, about 20 minutes longer. Serve immediately.

Brined Spareribs With Vegetables

(Serves 3-4)

One sheet spareribs (2 pounds or more), 1/2 teaspoon onion salt, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon ground sage, 1/4 teaspoon marjoram, 1 cup water, whole carrots, onions and potatoes. Place spareribs in baking pan. Mix seasonings together and sprinkle on both sides of the spareribs. Brown in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Add 1 cup water and reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and bake one hour, with cover on pan. Arrange vegetables around meat in pan and bake with stock in pan. Cover and bake 30 minutes longer. Remove cover and bake 30 minutes. Turn vegetables several times during baking. It may be necessary to add a little more water from time to time. Remove meat and vegetables from pan and make gravy from liquids in the pan.

ROSENDALE

Election Results
Rosedale, March 17—As a result of Rosedale village elections Tuesday Mayor J. W. Vaughn and Justice Vincent Steeley were re-elected for another two-year term. Votes cast—161; for J. W. Vaughn as mayor—155; for Vincent Steeley as justice—147; for Frank McKoon as trustee—14; other votes void. Both candidates expressed pleasure at the vote of confidence given their administration by the voters, and pledged themselves to continue to serve the best of their ability.

Range Meeting Attended By 54 Members Monday
Rosedale Grange 1501 met in regular session on Monday evening, with worthy Master George Osterhout in the chair. There were 54 members present. A special welcome was given Mrs. William Meier who had returned from an extended illness. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCaffrey, Miss Doris Aus and Mrs. Mary Harwooder were initiated in full form in the first and second degrees. Service of Hospitality Committee Chairman Mrs. Peter Lobello, Jr., reported the recent card party was a social and financial success. Chairman Adolf Stierborn of the Range Building Committee reported the findings and recommendations of said committee, which were accepted and approved. Work is to begin at an early date, with the painting of the outside of the hall to be done during the month of April. Mrs. Ferdinand Fiedler, chairman of the committee for the Saturday dance to be held on Friday, March 18, reported all plans are completed, and arrangements made for a gala evening of fun and festivities. Edward McCaffrey and George Krom, Jr., are in charge tickets. Teen-agers to 15 years of age will be admitted at half price. Donation was voted for the Red Cross fund campaign. Refreshments were served following the meeting. Worthy Master George Osterhout announced the next meeting on March 23 would be a visitation by Stone Ridge Grange, with Lecturer Ross Osterhout of Stone Ridge in charge of the program. The refreshment committee from Rosedale Grange will be in charge of coffee and dessert, sandwiches being provided by the visiting Grange. The committee: Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Fiedler, chairman; Dr. and Mrs. Simon Carrood, Miss June McGuire, Richard McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. John Seladi, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osterhout, Mrs. David Goldwasser, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burger, Mrs. Emanuel Boice and Mrs. Lillian Baganz. Rosedale Grange will visit Plattkill Grange on Saturday, April 9.

Red Cross Collectors

Rosedale, March 17—Joseph O'Connor, chairman of the Red Cross drive for the town of Rosedale, announces the following changes and additions to his list of solicitors: Mrs. Arthur Mulligan for the town of Rosedale, replacing Mrs. Mary Scharrer who is out of town; Mrs. Helen Hanley for Maple Hill, and John Marschillo, Jr., for Whiteport. Chairman O'Connor reports that excellent progress is being made by the solicitors, and collections to date have equalled those of last year.

Tilson Home Bureau

Names Officers for 1949
Rosedale, March 17—At the regular meeting of the Tilson Home Bureau unit which met at the Dutch Reformed Church hall Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Chairman, Mrs. Pearl DeForce; secretary, Mrs. Robert Esposito; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Wooten. During the short business session tentative plans were made for next year's program. One of the projects to be included in next year's work will be hammering aluminum trays. Instead of working on quilts, the members surprised retiring chairman, Mrs. Charles Goss, with a stork shower. Mrs. Goss received a large number of gifts. The table decorations were pink and blue, with all the gifts hidden under two large pink and blue umbrellas. The next meeting will be held on March 23.

Christian Endeavor Union

Has Interesting Meeting
Rosedale, March 17—The second meeting of the Ulster County Christian Endeavor Union was held Tuesday evening at the Dutch Reformed Church in Rosedale, with Miss Louella Wilson, county president, in the chair. Opening devotions were led by Barbara Perry of Rosedale, followed by instruction on Christian Endeavor methods, taught by Nelson Lewis of the Ponckhockie Congregational Church, Kingston. After a short recreational period directed by Miss Star Anderson of the First Baptist Church, Kingston, a second period class on the stories from the parables was conducted by the Rev. Mr. White of Kingston. Closing devotions were led by the Rev. Gerrit Timmer, pastor of the Marblatow Dutch Reformed Church in Stone Ridge. Dorothy Snider acted as organist. The third meeting in the series will be held Tuesday evening, March 22, at the Dutch Reformed Church in Rosedale.

Surprise Party

Rosedale, March 17—A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. David Goldwasser and Ferdinand Fiedler, Sr., was held Tuesday evening at the Fiedler's Mountain View House in Lawrenceville. Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Peters of New York and High Falls. Also present were David Goldwasser; Mrs. Ferdinand Fiedler, Sr., daughter, Carol Ann and son, Fred; Dr. and Mrs. Simon Carrood and daughter, Marilyn. Carol Ann Fiedler entertained at the piano, followed by an evening of cards. Mrs. Goldwasser remarked that it was the first birthday party ever given for her. Both honor guests received a number of gifts. Refreshments included a large decorated birthday cake with candles.

90th Birthday

Rosedale, March 17—Former pastor of Tilson Friends Church, the Rev. Anson Coutant, will celebrate his 90th birthday on Sunday, March 20. He was born in Tilson, Me., where he lived until two years ago, when he left to make his home with his nephew and family at 4 Davidson street, Ontario. Due to ill health the Rev. Mr. Coutant was unable to accept an invitation to celebrate the occasion as guest of Mrs. Helen Aldridge and Miss Pearl DeForce at their home in Tilson. However, he will doubtless receive many expressions of congratulations from his friends and acquaintances in this area, making it a happy and memorable occasion for him.

New Oil Process Found

Herring caught in the North Sea off Scotland will help provide margarine for European tables this summer. Millions of herring annually are thrown back into the sea because people can't eat them fast enough. Now, a method has been perfected to yield oil free from the smell of fish and factory at Wick will process them, making oil for margarine.

Assembly Gets Bill on Parking

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—A plan to permit cities to condemn property for garage construction to provide automobile parking space was before the Assembly today.

The measure, which its sponsors called a step toward solution of the parking situation which "is becoming desperate," was passed yesterday by the Senate.

The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican. A companion measure in the Assembly is sponsored by Democratic Leader Irwin Steingut of Brooklyn.

Under the terms of the proposed legislation, cities would be permitted to condemn property and sell or lease it to individuals who would build and operate garages.

It would allow cities to prescribe conditions and restrictions under which transfer of property could be made to persons wishing to construct garages. The cities also would be permitted to fix or approve parking charges.

The sponsors said the bill was drafted after conferences with representatives of Governor Dewey and Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York city.

Old Laws Face Repeal

Scores of ancient laws which, though obsolete, make thousands of Britons lawbreakers every day, are about to be repealed by the House of Lords, London reports. There is the one, for instance, which might be construed as against the New Look.

Passed in 1770, it says no woman shall seduce or betray a man into matrimony by using scents, paint, cosmetics, artificial teeth, false hair, high heeled shoes, iron stays or bolstered hips. Another, dating to 1745, makes men liable to fines for swearing, prescribing fines equal to 20 cents for "laborers," 40 cents for "middle class persons" and $1 for "gentlemen." In 1664 there was passed a law making it illegal to eat a dinner of more than two courses.

Italy Boosts Films
A steady increase has been noted in the activity of the Italian motion picture industry. Rome reports. On the production side, 87 feature films were made last year in Italian studios, 10 more than in 1946, and 182 short subjects, compared with 74. On the distribution side, there was about 50 per cent more activity last year. The importation of feature films increased too. 739 licenses for such films being granted, compared with 503 in 1946. Of the imports, two-thirds (493 films) came from America, with France, England and Russia following in that order as contributors to the market.

Britain Plans Festival

London (AP)—Britain has a comprehensive traffic plan, including transportation by road, rail, water, even by foot, for the "Festival of Britain, 1951," the fair projected for the south bank of the Thames, opposite Victoria Embankment. The festival, marking the centenary of the Great Exhibition of 1851, will tell the story of British life during a century of progress in work, play, discovery, invention and design. Provision for financing new traffic arteries and parking facilities are contained in a public works bill submitted in the House of Commons by Alfred Barnes, Minister of Transport.

YOUTHFUL PARENTS AND THEIR BABY.

Carl Blake, Jr., 13, and his 16-year-old wife, Winifred, are shown with their 3-week-old son, Charles III, born February 23 in Lakeview Hospital, Paw Paw, Mich. The teen-age parents, married last fall, live with her parents and six other children in a tiny two-room house. The young father is appealing for help in locating a job. His age is below the minimum working limit in Michigan. (A.P. Wire-photo)

Parents Form League

The League of Scottish Parents recently was launched at Edinburgh by people whose daughters are G.I. brides in America. This was a first step in their plan to charter a ship to take parents and other relatives on a junket to the United States and Canada to see the girls. Ronald Mackay, travel agency director, addressed the first meeting, warning the parents that their plan is an ambitious one, with many difficulties. The round trip is expected to cost between $240 and $280. The 200 Robert Burns societies in America will be asked if they can help financially. Branches of the league are being formed throughout Scotland.

Mine Draws Experts

American, Belgian, British and Dutch geologists have visited the samarskite mine, in the Tete District of Portuguese East Africa, where Mario de Carvalho last year found the deposits. Lourenco Marques reports. It is understood that an overseas firm has offered $1,200,000 for the property. Assay reports have shown that the mineral was of a complex character, containing uranium, thorium, tantalum, niobium, beryl and zircon. Tete is the richest mineral bearing district in Mozambique, gold, copper, iron, coal, graphite and mica having been found there—within easy reach of the Trans-Zambesi Railway.

Youthful Father, Jobless, Wonders What Will Happen

Paw Paw, Mich., March 17 (AP)—In a two-room tarpaper shack behind the city dump, an increasingly desperate 13-year-old father waited today for something—anything—to happen.

Crowded into the tiny house are Carl Harvey Blake, Jr., his wife Winifred, 16, their three-week-old son and eight in-laws.

Carl is jobless. There is no prospect of work despite all his efforts.

icy March winds seep through the cardboard-lined walls. The main diet for all the family is bread and potatoes.

"We eat 30 loaves a week," said Leo Singleton, 43, the father-in-law. His $20 weekly earnings from a junkyard job buy little more.

Winifred recently tore the baby's four ragged diapers in half to make them go farther. She has sacrificed her own food to buy him canned milk.

But in spite of everything, she and Carl want above all else to remain together.

Officials were silent on the question of whether Carl would be sent back to school.

Carl quit the sixth grade last year, prior to his marriage, and doesn't want to return.

But even though his plight had gained nationwide publicity, his chances of getting a job were dim because Michigan law forbids issuance of a child labor permit to youths under 14.

At the corner drugstore and in the local tavern, Carl's fate was the chief topic. Everyone in this town of 2,000 has been talking about it since Carl asked a local radio station for help and the story came out.

Most of Paw Paw is siding with the young father.

"If he's man enough to have a kid, he's man enough to go to work," said one oldtimer.

"If I hadn't lost my old job," Carl said, "I would've made a go of it and nobody would've known the difference." He had worked in a pickle factory at Lawton, home of his parents, until he moved here in January.

Unpaid bills were hanging over his head—$38 to Lakeview Hospital, $50 to the doctor, $50 for drugs and food.

Carl, who weighs 176 pounds and is five feet, six inches tall, says he "can do anything." Friends say he is level-headed and mature for his age.

U. S. Lure Gets Teacher

A teacher who went to the United States from Northern Ireland under a teacher-exchange plan and then refused to return, has just been dismissed by the Belfast Education Committee. She is Miss Mary Masson, who was teaching at Mountpottinger, P. E. school, before she took over Miss Willie Mac Parr's grade at San Angelo, Texas, Junior High School, while Miss Parr took over the Belfast position for 12 months. After Miss Parr returned to America, Miss Masson stayed on having been offered a better job in San Angelo. She tried to resign her Belfast job but the Education Committee would not accept it, saying she had received a grant of $400 from them while deep in the heart of Texas. She had lived in America before going to Ireland to teach.

Policeman to Be Rector

Cambridge, England (AP)—Archie Veness, once a detective inspector of London Metropolitan police at Scotland Yard, is to be ordained next June as a priest in the Church of England. Veness, who

C. of C. Endorses National Guard

The National Guard recruiting drive was supported and the McGovern bill, affecting installment purchases, opposed at a special meeting of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce executive committee, Tuesday afternoon. President Robert E. Teetsel presided. Other executive committee members present were George W. Schneider and James P. Byrne, as well as Executive Secretary Albert Kurdt. Other matters considered were: support of the Kings on Colonial baseball team, the Condon-Barrett bill proposing a new State University, and support of the Lions Club Industrial Exposition.

Several other matters were discussed and referred to appropriate committees for consideration.

Following is a copy of the resolution unanimously adopted endorsing the National Guard recruiting drive:

"The Kingston Chamber of Commerce heartily endorses the recruiting drive now being conducted by the N. Y. National Guard. We believe that qualified young men will not only be able to earn a little extra money, but will get a great deal of valuable experience by affiliating with the local National Guard unit.

"We believe that it is an honor to serve with the oldest active military unit in existence, one which has 15 silver service bands on the guidon streamer, more than any other unit in New York state.

"We trust that the campaign will be successful and that the unit will reach its authorized strength before camp time next summer.

"Several items of business were not considered because of the limited time available. It was, therefore, decided to have a further executive committee meeting at 4:30, Wednesday afternoon, March 23.

Legislature Eyes Adjournment Date

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—Passage of Governor Dewey's amended budget caused legislative leaders to eye April 2 as a likely final adjournment date.

Responsible officials would not predict a definite date, but agreed they hoped to quit in two weeks, or by April 2. In recent years adjournment usually has followed by two weeks' agreement on the budget.

Oswald D. Heck, Assembly speaker, said he thought it possible the Legislature could complete its work before April, but was not certain.

Before a Republican revolt delayed passage of the budget, leaders had set next Saturday as get-away day.

An April 2 adjournment would be the latest since 1942 when the session ended April 24.

Washington Gets '49 'Bible' Edition

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Another edition of the Washington "Bible"—the Congressional Directory—has rolled from government presses.

The 929-page fact-packed book is almost indispensable to government officials and workers, diplomats, news and radio men, lobbyists and many others, but few people outside of Washington know much about it.

Here are a few of the things it contains:
Names and home towns and brief biographical sketches of members of Congress; members of committees; data on the President and his cabinet; personnel of independent offices and agencies and courts; a list of diplomatic service men, showing where they are; thousands of other names, including many clerks and minor officials.

The book has a 210-page section on official duties of various agencies. This section alone is almost a course in civics.

Contents also include a list of all presidents with their terms of office; a map showing congressional districts of each state; statistics on Congress (from the first back in 1789); a list of all newspaper and radio men who cover Congress; one picture (the capitol) and a calendar.

The first congressional directories were privately printed and sold, much as city directories are today. But around 1857—the records are vague—the government decided to take over.

The format today is very much like it was in the very first issue, although many new departments have been added.

The directory is paid for out of the congressional printing and binding appropriation. Last summer's edition cost $41,530.26, a total of 36,000 copies being printed. About 36,500 copies of the present edition will be printed.

Copies go free to Congressmen, government departments (the State Department is high, with 1,500 copies), newspaper men and others. About 3,000 are set aside for sale. They cost $150 and can be obtained by writing the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C.

Boys' Club Gets $250 From Elks

Kingston Lodge, 550, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is another local organization behind the Kingston Boys' Club. The membership recently voted a $250 donation to help carry on the 1949 program. From left are Alexander (Pop) Fuhrman, director of the club; Jack Morris, vice president; David Wachter, president, receiving the check from William A. Krum, exalted ruler of the Elks; and County Judge John M. Cashin, also an Elk, in whose office the presentation took place. In front are two young members of the Boys' Club, Wilder Dawson and John Whitaker. (Freeman Photo.)

Ladd Fund Plans 20 Annual Scholarships

The Carl E. Ladd Memorial Scholarship Fund at Cornell University is working for 14 farm boys and girls in New York state this year. William H. Palmer, county agricultural agent, reported today.

"Already $80,000 has been raised toward the $100,000 goal, and a drive is underway to get the remaining $20,000 this spring," Palmer said. When completed the fund will offer 20 scholarships annually amounting to $200 each for study in the College of Agriculture at Cornell. The money has come mainly from farmers and friends of Carl E. Ladd, late dean of the college.

The young people who hold scholarships, Palmer pointed out, were selected because of their financial need, academic achievement, and activities in community life. Frank Osterhout of Kingston, R.D. 1, is one of the Ladd scholarship holders for the 1948-49 school year.

Lightens Tax Burden

Warsaw, Poland (AP)—The Polish government says it is lightening income tax burdens for workers. Tax exemptions previously were allowed for those earning up to $22.50 per month. The figure now has been raised to $32.50. Those who earn $50 per month now pay a 5 per cent levy. Salaries or wages over $250 monthly are subjected to a 30 per cent tax.

Port Jervis Tax Rate For 1949 Is $22.84

Port Jervis, March 16—At a special meeting of the Common Council this week, the tax roll for 1949 was adopted and a warrant issued for the collection of city taxes. The rates for this year was set at $22.84, an increase of $3.61 over last year's rate, $19.20.

The rate covers a tax levy of $95,643.84, the highest in the history of the city for a gross budget of $310,046.56. Of the total budget, $246,859 is for current expenses while $61,187.56 covers expenditures on the debt service.

The gas utility companies in this country employ about 160,000 workers.

THE NEW Plymouth-on display Friday

Now there's more difference than ever in low-priced cars... and the great New Plymouth makes the difference!

New Beauty

There's beauty in every sweeping new low line of it—and throughout its brilliant new interior. And this is beauty that's built on advanced engineering... to give you a great new automobile that handles easier, rides smoother, performs better—the greatest in a long line of great Plymouths!

New Vision

The greatly increased glass area is exactly where you need it—in the windshield and rear window. And the new design of the hood and the entire body gives the driver a clear, undistorted view of the road—in all directions—day or night—rain or shine! Blind spots are practically eliminated.

New Features

You just turn the ignition key and the engine starts! No buttons to push, no choke to pull. You save on oil and get longer engine life with new oil control piston rings and the brand-new chrome compression ring. These are just two of the great new features in the great New Plymouth.

New Comfort

Talk about room for comfort—the New Plymouth has it! Those famous chair-height seats are now even wider, and deeper from front to back. Long legs can stretch out and hats stay put. Diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers reduce sideway. You drive for hours without fatigue.

The Beautiful New Plymouth Special De Luxe 4-Door Sedan with Longer 118" Wheelbase

New Safety

Safety has always been first with Plymouth—and this new car is safer than ever! It has a lower center of gravity. It hugs the road better. A completely new body construction makes it a sturdier automobile. Body and frame are 23% more rigid. You drive with a great new sense of security.

New Convenience

Because of less overhang, the New Plymouth is easy to park, easy to put in the garage. Fenders flow into the body but they're separate and detachable—and it doesn't cost a fortune to repair them! Windows lift and lower easier. Doors open while you get in and out of this car with ease!

New Performance

There's greater power in the New Plymouth engine. This comes from a newly designed cylinder head, a higher compression ratio and a new intake manifold. When you step on it, you'll instantly feel this new surge of power. Here's the best performer of all the great performing Plymouths!

Greatest New Value

The only way to discover all of the great new things in the great New Plymouth is to see it—to sit in it—to drive it. Do this and you'll be convinced that—feature for feature—dollar for dollar—here's the greatest value of all! Compare it to any car at any price. See it NOW!

FLAKO LEADS ALL PIE CRUST MIXES

Proven For 27 Years,
And Widely Copied,
Flako Is Largest Seller

Many pie crust mixes are on the market today and many claims are made about them, but according to housewives' preferences, as determined by what they actually buy, there is no pie crust mix like Flako. Flako is America's largest selling pie crust mix. It has been preferred for 27 years by more housewives than any other similar product. No other pie crust mix has stood the test of pleasing so many housewives for so long. Flako is time-proven; value-proven; oven-proven; and flavor-proven. It is the most widely imitated pie crust mix in America—the mix they all try to copy. But there still is no substitute for Flako.

There's Only One Flako
Try a single package of Flako. Your own flakier, tastier pie will at once tell you why Flako is America's largest selling pie crust mix. The best and nothing but the best ingredients go into Flako. The best flour, baking powder, shortening and salt. The same fine quality ingredients you use. And these are precision-mixed so that you are assured delicious results at every baking. You can't miss with Flako. Get yours today. Also ask your grocer for Flukorn Corn Muffin Mix and Cuplets Cup Cake Mix. All made by the same company. All will delight you.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk visited the municipal auditorium Wednesday afternoon to inspect the work done by local women for the Rosary Hill Home for Incurable Cancer Patients at Hawthorne, Westchester county. Ready for shipment were 5,137 miscellaneous pads and 120 bed jackets. Talking with the mayor from left to right are Mrs. Margaret Pendill, Mrs. Helen Lurie, Mrs. Aaron Lipkin, Mrs. Samuel Kaplan, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Mary Simonetty and Mrs. Nellie Wade. The mayor was deeply impressed by the work and offered suggestions for future preparations. Mrs. Vincent A. Gorman explained that through the generosity of the public in supplying clean white material and men's white and colored shirts, such shipments were made possible. Light refreshments were served to the mayor and workers with Miss Laura Albrecht as hostess. Other workers present were the Meses. James Cahill, James Connolly, Mary Carroll, Kathryn Liscom, Anne O'Rourke, Sarah Ferraro, Katherine Mayone, Anna Murphy, Elizabeth Murdock, Catherine Meagher, Cora Lunny, Lena Roche, Anna Snow, Jane Simoncini, Stella Whitley, Josephine Webster, Alice Van Gonsick, and the Misses Elizabeth Gibbons and Helen Van Steenburg. The rummage sale, will hold the event on Tuesday, March 29, and Wednesday, March 30, at 122 Hasbrouck avenue. Articles may be left at the address Monday, March 28, after 2 p. m. or will be picked up if notification is given by phoning 3396-W or 2195.
Republican women were reminded by Mrs. Connolly that they may invite neighbors and friends to the club's meetings.
Mrs. Connolly also announced that Senator Arthur H. Wickes, Ulster county Republican chairman, was very happy over the attendance of women from this area at the luncheon in New York honoring Governor and Mrs. Dewey. The Ulster delegation at the Hotel Roosevelt on February 18 was the second largest, being surpassed only by that from New York.

Late Bulletin

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—A joint resolution was introduced in the Legislature today calling for adjournment March 26, but the Senate majority leader expressed doubt "if we'll finish then."

Benjamin F. Feinberg added that "if we can't finish we'll go into the following week." He said there would be a night session next Wednesday in an effort to meet the March 26 date.

The measure was passed unanimously by the Assembly.

Passage of Governor Dewey's amended budget yesterday cleared the way for a speed-up of activity pending adjournment of both Houses within two weeks.

With heavy calendars ahead of them, and several pieces of major legislation still to be handled, there was doubt the Houses could complete their business by March 26.

Before the Republican revolt delayed passage of the budget, leaders had set next Saturday as get-away day.

official department documents. It alleges she acted "with intent and reason to believe the information was to be used to the injury of the United States and to the advantage of a foreign nation."

The Grand Jury said the material included data on the national defense and confidential reports of the F. B. I. on spy and counter-spy activity in this country.

Miss Coplon pleaded innocent to the conspiracy charge at New York, and was released on $20,000 bond. Gubitchev, however, has challenged the entire proceeding, claiming diplomatic immunity from arrest. He has refused to enter a plea, hire or accept a court-appointed attorney, or make any move toward posting the $100,000 bond fixed for his release.

The State and Justice Departments and United Nations officials have asserted that diplomatic immunity could not be claimed in response to such an accusation.

However, the second indictment against Miss Coplon alone, covering alleged illegal acts in the Districts of Columbia, appeared to be a backstop action. It could provide a separate, early trial for her here in the event the diplomatic immunity issue becomes a long-drawn-out legal battle.

The two are now scheduled for trial in New York April 1.

New Store Front

The store front of the building at 594 Broadway, owned by Mrs. Lillian Perry is currently being remodelled. The store which is 22 by 60 feet, has been vacant since January 1, and was formerly occupied by James Galate & Co., dealer in electrical appliances. A spokesman for the owner of the place said that no agreement has been made to date between the owner and any of the tenants in the building along the Broadway crossing project area. The store front will be completed in modern design.

Hurley Man Injured

Louis Blair, 24, of Hurley, suffered an injury of the left foot while at work in his garage at Hurley Wednesday. It was learned that he was admitted at Kingston Hospital shortly after noon for treatment of a badly injured toe. It was reported at the garage today that a heavy piece of metal fell on the foot.

Martin Is Altman Winner of $1,250 In Academy Show

Woodstock, March 16—Fletcher Martin, local artist of national prominence, has been awarded the $1,250 Altman prize in the 123rd annual exhibition at the National Academy of Design, New York city, for his painting "Cherry Tree" which is described as a "fantastic, semi-realistic double portrait, exhibiting the more advanced imaginative trend."

The large exhibition includes 264 oils and pieces of sculpture, and represents a wide ranging selection of work from the contemporary field. The paintings vary from the sentimental and illustrative to the more imaginative and dramatic.

Martin, who has been an instructor at the Art Students League in Woodstock since its opening in 1947, covered the African and Normandy campaigns on war assignments for Life magazine. He is a well-known member of the Woodstock Artists Association and his work is represented by the Associated American Artists, Metropolitan Museum of Modern Art, William Rockhill Nelson Gallery, Kansas City, Legion of Honor building, San Francisco, Calif., Los Angeles and Denver Museums, University of Iowa, Davenport, Iowa Museum. He has exhibited in the outstanding national annuals including, Corcoran, Carnegie and Pennsylvania Academy as well as in museums throughout the country.

Various Awards
His awards include Print Group prize, Los Angeles Museum, 1933; Van Rensselaer prize, $500, and first museum award, L. A. Museum, 1935; first L. A. prize, 1939; Lippincott prize, Pennsylvania Academy, 1947; $4,900 contract in western states competition, Section Fine Arts for mural in Customs House, San Pedro, Calif., 1937, as well as many other mural prizes.

Before coming to Woodstock three years ago, the artist, a native of Colorado, had been instructor in the First Art Center School, Los Angeles, succeeded Graef Wood as art resident, University of Iowa and later succeeded Thomas Hart Benton, Kansas City Art Institute. Last year the Martins moved into their new home designed by Mr. Martin. Mrs. Martin has had a long background in the theatre and has appeared on the stage at the Woodstock Playhouse in past seasons.

The National Academy annual this year is being held in two parts. The first is current through March 23 and will be followed immediately by the second.

Trustees to Meet In Albany Monday; Seek New School

Woodstock, March 16—A specific proposal for a new Woodstock school will be made in Albany next Monday, March 21, when members of the board of trustees of the local school district will meet with Donald Essex of the state department of education, building division, and a representative of the elementary education department.

Trustees planning to attend the meeting are Loren Stowell, chairman; Adolph Blackforth and Clark Nelson. Also attending will be Reginald Bennett, district superintendent; and Walter S. Van Wageningen, school superintendent.

Present facilities at the local school are overcrowded and registration is mounting each year. As an example, it was learned that the registration this year is 144 as against 119 last year. There are now 20 children in kindergarten and 32 in the first and second grades. When the kindergarten children go into the first grade next September, it also will be necessary to have an additional teacher on the school staff.

The proposal, which will be submitted in Albany next week recommends what would be the beginning of a new Woodstock school to be built on the 11-acre tract located on the West Hurley road, opposite the golf course which was purchased several years ago and approved by the department for this purpose. As a beginning the local board of trustees will suggest a building to contain three rooms and an auditorium. Plans drawn up in 1941 by Albert Gracser, architect, for a six-room school will be used as the foundation for this proposed building. It is believed that an auditorium is insisted upon by the state authorities when new schools are built. The one in Gracser's plan, which incidentally has also been previously approved along with the other rooms in 1941 measures 48 by 66 feet and would be 10 feet wider and 16 feet longer than the Town Hall building.

The rental on the building which now houses the lower grades is $900 per year. The space is inadequate and unless a new school is approved, it will be necessary to rent an additional building and so far as is known, nothing suitable is available in the village proper.

Other Plan Suggested
Another school of thought has sprung up in the village during the past few weeks with regard to purchasing the Cannon residence with 20 acres which we learn has been offered for sale at something less than one-third of current replacement value.

This group believes that with necessary alterations to meet the specifications required by the state Board of Education, the community could boast a school second to none for its beauty. This property is located about one mile from the village on the Rock city road. "And," say those who favor the idea, "it could be done for a great deal less than the cost of building the proposed three room school."

Until such time as approval has been given by the state, no figures have been made available for either of the proposals. With an approval, the state would specify the minimum of materials, size, etc. A majority vote in the community could authorize expenditures not to exceed $100,000. For anything more than this amount, a two-thirds vote will be required.

Should the three-room school be built, it would be occupied by the upper grades and the lower grades would be housed in the present school building.

Protest Is Made Against Antique Show in Garden

Woodstock, March 16—Before the close of the recent antique exhibition at Madison Square Garden, a large number of exhibitors voiced a strong protest against showing their fine old pieces another year if the management continues the policy followed this year. According to Betty Barnes who returned to Woodstock Monday evening, there were many exhibitions of reproductions as well as the type of pieces to be found in any gift shop.

Those who collect and exhibit unusual and authentic pieces to not feel it is appropriate to have such a combination type of show.

Telephone Workers Fete Employee at Shower

Woodstock, March 16—A surprise shower was held Monday night at the Irvington Inn, by fellow employees of the New York Telephone Company's local office for Mrs. Joseph Raymond, the former Marie Haythorne whose marriage took place earlier this month.

The large dining room was gaily decorated in pink, blue and white. A tremendous pink umbrella was placed in the center of the table where among the countless shower presents was a set of silver service from the telephone personnel. A buffet supper was served to the 60 guests later in the evening.

The party was planned by the Misses Hope Duffy, Clifford Elliott, Dorothy Wright, the Misses Winnie Davis, Natalie MacDaniel, Ruth Bonesteel, Jane Haines, Helen and Mildred Jones, and Mervin Doremus, and Roger Grazer, assisted by the bride and groom's sisters, Mrs. Sterling Wolven and Mrs. Walter Riseley.

Wittenberg Auxiliary Plans Dance Saturday

Woodstock, March 16—The Women's Auxiliary of the Wittenberg Sportsmen's Club held a special meeting Monday night when final plans were made for a square and round dance at the club house, Saturday, March 19, starting at 9 p. m.

Like the good housekeepers they are reputed to be, the ladies soon discovered the sportsmen lacked sufficient dishes and he proceeds from their first affair will be held at this purpose.

By-laws proposed at an earlier meeting were approved by the Sportsmen's Club and adopted by the Auxiliary.

Mary Barone is chairman of Saturday's event and will be assisted by Mrs. Everett Cashdollar, Miss Evelyn DeGraff, Miss Lottie Leonard and Mrs. Angie Eling. The membership drive has been postponed until the summer residents arrive. Twenty-two exhibitors were present at the special meeting and all are enthusiastic about the anticipated active-social life of the community because of this new organization. The next regular meeting will be on March 21.

Building Is Sold

Woodstock, March 16—Mrs. Mary McManus has purchased the Holmizer building in the village. It has for some time been occupied by the Woodstock Fuel Company. The new owner will have certain alterations made and expects to open a shop on the premises about May 1. A display window and suitable lighting are two of the improvements being considered. As to the merchantise to be sold, she will have an announcement to make in the near future.

In Cage Tournament

Woodstock, March 16—A large number of local residents are expected to be on hand at the Y.M.C.A. auditorium, Kingston, Friday evening, when the Woodstock Varsity plays the Co-H team of Hudson in the tournament.

Compton Free on Bail After Bad Check Charge

Woodstock, March 16—John H. Compton, writer, and resident in the community for the past few months, was arraigned in $500 bail Monday afternoon following an arrest Sunday evening by State Trooper Ray Dunn on a charge of passing worthless checks made out on the Bank of America, Los Angeles, Calif.

The defendant asked for an adjournment of the case and next Monday was the date set for a further hearing.

Board Meeting

Woodstock, March 16—The regular monthly meeting of the Town Board will be held Monday evening, March 21, in the Town Clerk's office.

No Competition Likely For Local Electricians

Woodstock, March 16—Leasers Hermine Kutzschbach and Nora Holdridge arrived complete with equipment at the Legion clubhouse Tuesday afternoon prepared to instruct the members of the Home Bureau in the art of simple electrical repairs. In the late afternoon, Madames Kutzschbach and Holdridge, convinced that the local ladies were completely satisfied with service received in the town and had no desire to compete with the electricians, graciously turned their tools and tools away.

Benefit Movie Slated For Wiltwyck School

Woodstock, March 16—A benefit showing of the motion picture film "The Quiet One" will be given at the Woodstock Art Gallery Friday and Saturday evenings, March 25 and 26. The story concerns the life of a Negro child who was rehabilitated at the Wiltwyck School in Esopus. The proceeds from the two showings will be given to the Wiltwyck School.

No admission will be charged for this benefit which is sponsored by the Woodstock Artists Association but a contribution will be taken up on each evening. The public is invited to attend.

Nitric acid is produced in stainless steel vats. Chemical engineers say the acid has no corrosive effect on this metal.

Business Teacher 40 Years

ELSIE MYERS PULTZ

Mrs. Elsie Myers Pultz, for many years principal of the secretarial department at Spencer's Business School in this city, will complete 40 years of teaching at that school in October.

When Spencer's School merges with the Moran School of Business on April 1 under the ownership of Joseph J. Morgan and the Misses Catherine M. and Helen L. Morgan, it is expected Mrs. Pultz will remain on the teaching staff, it was announced today by Mrs. Pultz and Mr. Morgan.

Mrs. Pultz, who is the former Miss Elsie Myers, was born in Lake Katrine. She moved to Kingston when two years old and has lived here since. Since a child she has been a member of the First Baptist Church here and is very active in the work of that church.

Started in 1901

She started her teaching career in 1901, employed by the founder of the school, E. H. Spencer. She taught for two years under Mr. Spencer, then for three years at the same school under the partnership of Charles L. Kelly and John J. Moran.

In 1906 she left teaching to marry Sol Nelson Pultz of this city. Mr. Pultz died in 1909. She has one son, Donald R. Pultz, who corresponded with all of them until their discharge.

Not only have her pupils obtained prominence locally, but some are located in the government departments in Washington and Albany, occupying responsible positions.

Most gratifying to Mrs. Pultz are the hundreds of letters she has received from former pupils, many of whom attribute their start on the upward climb to her teaching and advice. She greatly values her associations with young people, and when asked for a comment on her 40 years of teaching, she stated, "My close association with hundreds of fine young people over these many years have been really wonderful. They are much appreciated by me."

LEIBHARDT

Leibhardt, March 16—Mr. and Mrs. William Schedinger of Rockway, L. I., spent Sunday with Mr. Schedinger's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Schedinger.

Fred Dobler of Long Island is spending a few days at his home here.

Mrs. Anna Mornelstein and sons, summer residents here, recently spent some time in Florida. H. C. Locke and friend are vacationing in Florida.

Mrs. Ralph Hornbeck is entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Edith Gray of Watkings.

Century Club Hears Of Italy, Greece

A review of conditions in Italy and Greece was the topic at the Twentieth Century Club Monday afternoon as the group met with Mrs. W. S. Ellinger, 105 St. James street. Mrs. Herbert Rhodes presented the paper on Italy and Mrs. D. F. Wells the paper on Greece.

Italy is not a member of the United Nations because of the Russian veto, Mrs. Rhodes explained. The country has been reduced to a deplorable economic condition. A large percentage of the 46,000,000 people are peasants crowded into the southern part of the country. Separated from the cities by rough land and poor road conditions, they are forced to endure a cruelly hard life without homes and jobs, she reported.

The United States has attempted to alleviate this condition by pouring into Italy $610,000,000 in addition to $200,000,000 under the government of the armed forces, Mrs. Rhodes said. Machinery, coal, raw material, bread and jobs have been provided and electric power dams and aqueducts have been constructed. Mrs. Rhodes called attention to the fact that running water has been provided for the first time since work was stopped on the aqueducts at the fall of the Roman Empire.

In addition to government aid, Mrs. Rhodes said that Father Flannigan's visit accomplished much for the boys of Italy. Many boys' communities were started similar to Boys' Town in New York. The Communists are working hard to discredit all these efforts and the E.R.P., she reported.

Mrs. Wells reported that Greece is racked by civil war. Mountains separate the towns and villages, and 76 per cent of the population live in remote villages at the mercy of the Greek guerrillas.

In speaking of the war conditions, Mrs. Wells said that after guerrillas take a village they at once kill the priest and the village officials. In 1947 the Greek army liberated some of these villages through the use of guerrilla warfare tactics. However, for every guerrilla slain, a recruit is taken from the Greeks.

In spite of American aid to the extent of $100,000,000, normal economic conditions have not returned, she explained. The export trade has been lost. Many Greeks have found that virtue in business does not pay. The black market flourishes. Coal and fuel oil piled up by lend-lease have been sold and converted into American dollars and deposited outside Greece. The F.E.A. is now directing money spent in Greece. In closing she noted that Greece is the link between the East and West and that Russia's reason for its conquest is understood.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. H. Woodard, 42 Roosevelt avenue, March 28.

Harry Thompson, Highland Contractor, Marries Mrs. Wood

Highland, March 17.—The marriage of Mrs. Bernice B. Wood of Miami, Fla., and Harry Thompson was performed Sunday at 5 p. m. at the Presbyterian Manse. The Rev. Oscar Jelsma officiated. Attendants were Miss Marian E. Stewart and Nathan Hahn.

Others present for the ceremony were the bride's sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herman Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morano, also Mr. and Mrs. Allen Decker of Clintonville. A reception was held at the Carlton Inn, Milton, of which the bridegroom is proprietor.

Mrs. Thompson during her residence in Florida was manager of a 16-story apartment house. Mr. Thompson is a leading contractor and builder. They are making their home on Tillson avenue.

Linen Takes to Frills

Dramatic hood on dress (above) and beruffled neckline on bare-topped frock (right) are typical of new ultra-feminine styling of Irish linen fashions.

By EPSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor

New York (NEA)—Irish linen succumbs this spring to dress-up frills.

This surrender to from fro of a fabric which has long been associated with strict tailoring or classic styles makes new suits, jackets, and dresses of Irish linen have become ultra-feminine and look as light as rain with touches of velvet, dyed-to-match laces, gilt buttons and bolts, dramatic hoods and flattery ruffles.

Take, as an example, an outstanding design by Vera Stewart, who bedecks a bare-topped dress with a wide neckling ruffle, and corsets the bodice with boning. To this beruffled top, the designer adds a skirt as extravagantly gathered as a diend. The color of this dress is Bermuda blue, which is a blue typical of linen's switch from bon bon tints to stronger pastel shades for spring. Deep coral is the vibrant color used for a linen dress which is dramatically topped by a hood and gleams from neckline to hem with gold buttons, matched to a belt.

Lowell Club Names Nominating Committee, Hears Two Papers
Lowell Literary Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Rose K. Witter, 117 Fair street. During the business meeting Mrs. Sarah Regendahl was accepted as a new member. The nominating committee for next year was appointed as follows: Mrs. O. D. B. Ingalls, Mrs. C. V. Gunther, Mrs. Merrill C. Johnson and Mrs. John B. Stokete.

Miss Flora Davison gave a sketch on historic churches in the United States and passed many pamphlets on some of the leading churches to illustrate her paper. She mentioned Old North Church of Paul Revere fame; Old Ship Meeting House in Hingham, Mass., where seamen were the carpenters and the construction of the roof resembles the inverted hull of a ship. She also spoke of the historic museum preserving documents linked to Peter Stuyvesant in the First Dutch Reformed Church, Albany. In 1943 the federal government designated St. Paul's Episcopal Church in East Chester as a national shrine. Miss Davison also spoke of many churches in Brooklyn and New York including the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which will be the largest church in the world when completed; St. Patrick's Cathedral, and churches in Norfolk, Newport, Savannah, Chicago, and Washington. In conclusion she explained how the army managed to arrange chapels for the three main religious services, Jewish, Protestant and Catholic. Altars for the three services were built on a turntable to facilitate arranging the worship center for each faith.

Mrs. O. D. B. Ingalls gave her paper on the life of Augustus St. Gaudens. St. Gaudens went to work at the age of 13 and was apprenticed to a cameo cutter. He received much of his training during evening school at Cooper Union so it was a labor of love when he made the statue of Peter Cooper. Among other famous statues which he did are Hawthorne at Saratoga; Farragut at Patterson Square; Lincoln in Chicago; General Sherman in Central Park at 59th street, New York city, and Phillips Brooks at Trinity Church, Boston.

The next meeting of the club will be March 29 when Mrs. John D. Groves of West Hurley will be the hostess.

Benedictine Auxiliary Sends Out Tickets For Annual Ball

"Patron tickets for the Easter Monday Ball are in the mails," announced Mrs. Allen Baker, chairman, today. "We hope the public will continue to be as generous in its acceptance of these tickets as in former years."

"This annual appeal for support of the Benedictine Hospital has always met with enthusiastic response and we hope, this year will be no exception," continued Mrs. Baker. "The need is great, especially in view of the fact that it is planned to start construction on the new addition this spring."

As in past years, the various committees are working tirelessly for the success of the ball and the members are putting forth every effort to make it the outstanding social event of the post-Lenten season.

Returns for patron tickets can be made to Miss Ann Campbell, treasurer. Single tickets are on sale at the O'Reilly stores.

Smith-Ruberti Marriage Announced

The marriage of Miss Mary Christine Ruberti to Frank W. Smith, formerly of this city, was solemnized in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Hollywood, Calif., by the Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, pastor.

After a short wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev., Mr. and Mrs. Smith returned to Hollywood where they were honored at several parties. Mrs. Smith's brother and sister-in-law entertained at a reception for 75 guests at their home. A dinner was given in honor of the newlyweds by the best man at Bit of Sweden, one of Hollywood's restaurants. Mr. and Mrs. Smith entertained for 75 guests at their home, 632 North Sweetzer avenue, Hollywood.

The couple left for a trip through Mexico and the Gulf states to Florida. They will stop in Washington, D. C., to visit friends of Mr. Smith whose acquaintance he made while working for the government.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith plan to arrive in Kingston sometime this week-end to spend the summer months with his children and their families and also to visit Mrs. Smith's relatives in the New England states. While there they will reside at the family home, 11 Stanley street. Mr. Smith's daughters are Mrs. John Emmick, Mrs. William Ewington, Miss Katherine Smith of 11 Stanley street, Mrs. John Coffey, 23 Van Deusen avenue, and Mrs. George R. Savatky of Burbank, Calif. His sons are Harold Smith and Alfred E. Smith of 11 Stanley street.

Covered for Concealment

Because of fears that the Spanish fleet might bombard Boston during the Spanish-American war, in 1898, the gold dome of the state house of Massachusetts was painted a drab gray.

St. Louis Sinfonietta Will Give Concert Next Tuesday Night

The Saint Louis Sinfonietta, founded and conducted by Paul Schreiber, will be presented in concert Tuesday, March 22, 8:30 p. m., at Kingston High School auditorium. The concert will be the third in a series under the auspices of Kingston Community Concerts Association.

Schreiber conceived the idea some years ago of creating a small concert orchestra for the purpose of bringing symphonic music to audiences everywhere. Spring orchestras had already been touring limited sections of the country. The unique contribution of Mr. Schreiber, was, however, the conception of a chamber orchestra which would have not only the delicacy and refinement of the stringed instruments, but a reasonable degree of the extended tonal latitude, color variety and sonority of the symphony orchestra. So successful has the instrumentation of the St. Louis Sinfonietta proven — every instrument of a full symphony orchestra being represented — that this same instrumentation has been maintained since the group was formed.

The programs embrace a wide variety of selections from the classic symphonies of Haydn and Schubert, the dazzling impressionistic compositions of Ravel and Debussy to the modern orchestral works of Morton Gould and Jerome Kern.

For the concert next Tuesday the Sinfonietta will play Adagio by Arcangelo Corelli; Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro," Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart; Symphony No. 5 in B flat major, Franz Schubert; Introduction and Allegro with harp solo by Maurice Ravel; From San Diego and a vocal Rumba by Arthur Benjamin; and a collection of Jerome Kern favorites.

Card Parties

St. Remy Auxiliary

Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Remy Fire Department will hold a card party at the firemen's hall, Tuesday at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Luncheon Salad

To make a nutritious and delicious luncheon salad, quarter a small tomato for each person to be served, but do not cut the tomato quite through at the bottom. Place on a bed of shredded salad greens and fill the tomato with a generous serving of creamed cottage cheese; if chives are available they may be finely diced and used as a garnish for the cheese. Serve the salad with a well-seasoned French dressing and hot rolls.

Book Group Has Discussion Of Huxley by Robert Craft

The life and works of Aldous Huxley were reviewed by Robert Craft of 41 Johnston avenue, speaker at the open meeting of the Book Club at the home of Dr. Walter Levy, Fair street.

Mr. Craft said Huxley's value as a writer is in his criticisms of contemporary moral life pertaining to the way in which society lives from day to day. Because Huxley is inherently honest and at the same time almost too vasty comprehensive in his knowledge, he is unable to reach any satisfactory solutions for his criticisms. None-the-less, Craft considers Huxley as an important figure because of his criticisms which in any effort must be made for improvement.

A review of his nine novels explained to the club that the novels are much alike and used to propound Huxley's perplexions or observations on life.

The speaker read excerpts from Huxley's works and made him seem much alive. He also related anecdotes from a dinner which he attended at the home of Stravinsky at which Huxley was present.

During the business session tickets were distributed among the members for the play, "Death of a Salesman," which the group is to attend June 18. Refreshments were served and discussion followed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leon Greenberg when a report on Gorki will be given by Mrs. Alex Farnett.

Organ Concert Will Be Given at Bard

Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y., March 17—Edgar Hillier, organist of St. Mark's Church of Mount Kisco, will give a concert of organ music in the chapel of Bard College Wednesday evening, March 23, at 8 o'clock.

Edgar Hillier's musical training includes organ with G. Huntington Bayles of New Haven and E. Power Biggs at the Long School of Music, Cambridge. Born in New London, Conn., he has been organist of three churches in Connecticut and Massachusetts. While in the army he appeared as first recitalist on the new organ in his native Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, Va.

Distinguished by appointment at the age of 21 as organist of the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, Mr. Hillier has won the acclaim of both press and public by his organ concerts in New York and in other sections of the country. At present he is instructor of organ at Plus X School of Liturgical Music, New York, and organist of St. Mark's Church, Mount Kisco. During the summer of 1948 he spent several months abroad studying the tonal design of the 18th century organ.

The public is invited.

June M. Hoerner, Bruce G. Gillette, Ellenville, to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hoerner of Ellenville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss June Marian Hoerner, to Bruce Gordon Gillette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Gillette, also of Ellenville. A late summer wedding is planned.

Miss Hoerner is a graduate of the Ellenville High School, class of 1945, and is in her senior year at the Adelphi College School of Nursing.

Mr. Gillette is an alumnus of Ellenville High School, Manlius Military Academy and Long Island Technical Institute. During the war he served in the 9th U. S. Army, 30th Division, in Belgium and Germany.

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, March 16—At the Missionary meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Jenkins the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. John W. Tyssie, president; Mrs. Wilbur J. VanWyck, vice president; Mrs. Clarence Spencer, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Jenkins, secretary. As this was an all day sewing meeting several quilts were made. A pot luck lunch was held at noon. The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elwood Powell.

Several from here attended the Union Lenten services at the Shawangunk Reformed Church last Sunday evening and heard a Lenten sermon delivered by the Rev. James E. Hoffman, the stated clerk of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America.

The Young Women's Club will hold a food sale at the Florence Garage in Wallkill, Friday, March 18, at 1 p. m.

The Union Lenten service next Sunday evening will be held in the Wallkill Reformed Church. Dr. Justin Vander Kolk of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary will bring the message.

The women of New Hurley have been invited to meet with the Shawangunk Missionary Society, April 13 at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grill and daughter, Jacqueline, of New York, spent the week-end with Mrs. Grill's father, Nicholas Cocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell and Miss Bertha Sutton spent Saturday in Kingston.

Mrs. Murey of Port Jervis was a caller at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Tyssie Sunday afternoon.

Funeral services for Kathryn Slinglessler, who died in Brooklyn Saturday, were held at the McHugh Funeral Home in Wallkill Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. John W. Tyssie of the New Hurley Reformed Church officiating. Burial was in the family plot in the New Hurley Cemetery. Mrs. Slinglessler was a former resident of this village.

Miss Bertha Sutton was a caller at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McKinstry in Gardiner Tuesday.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Classis of Orange will hold its spring conference at the New Hurley Reformed Church Thursday, April 21, at 10:15 a. m. Miss Helen Brinkman and Mrs. Alvin Neveel will bring messages from the mission fields.

Problems Are Discussed

Miss Clare M. Kelley, Catholic Charities case work secretary for Ulster county discusses family welfare problems with the Rev. James T. McDonnell, director of Catholic Charities suburban and rural offices. The Ulster county office of Catholic Charities is located at 261 Fair street, Kingston.

Catholic Charities Reports on Area

The Rev. James T. McDonnell, director of the suburban and rural offices of New York Catholic Charities which handle problems of family care, issued a report today on the large scale family welfare program of Catholic Charities as carried on in Ulster county and six other nearby counties. The report was made public in connection with the 30th annual fund appeal of Catholic Charities through which $2,500,000 is sought for the continuance of its work.

Catholic Charities maintains a local office at 261 Fair street, Kingston, for serving Ulster county. Miss Clare M. Kelley is the Catholic Charities case work secretary for this office.

"During 1948 Family Welfare Services of Catholic Charities in the counties of Westchester, Ulster, Orange, Sullivan, Dutchess, Putnam and Rockland were again an important and considerable part of the varied work of Catholic Charities in the archdiocese of New York," Father McDonnell states in his report. "Through our seven local offices outside New York we gave direct service last year to 3851 families comprising 13,670 persons. Our social workers gave 20,102 interviews and traveled thousands of miles in the charitable endeavor of helping and guiding these families with their difficulties."

"Behind these family case workers stood the vast array of specialized Catholic welfare and health agencies and institutions—the child caring homes, the foster homes, the adoption agencies, the clinics and hospitals, the homes for the aged, the guidance centers, the employment services—supported in whole or in part by the funds gathered by Catholic Charities annually since 1920. Working in close cooperation with them, too, were the public welfare agencies, the public and private welfare and health institutions of our many local communities."

"The family problems with which mothers and fathers sought our help, and in which they were helped in 1948 were tremendously varied. Even in this relatively boom year, a large part of our work was still concerned with giving financial help to families who lacked sufficient funds to provide all essential needs. Another big need was to arrange shelter and care for both children and the aged."

"The test of the work fell into no particular category and might be called special personal and family problems. These ranged from such concrete needs as homes for families who had no place to live, to problems of conflict, adjustment, management and worry."

"All of these problems," the report concludes, "are closely related to the protection and development of sound family life, which is the purpose of the Family Service Division of Catholic Charities."

Annual Parade Will Honor Saint

New York, March 17 (AP) — A little bit of Ireland will spread out up and down Fifth avenue today in the annual St. Patrick's Day parade.

More than a million spectators are expected to line the street as the green-splashed line of marchers moved along to the rhythm of Celtic airs.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Mayor William O'Dwyer and other public dignitaries will be in the reviewing stand.

Not quite getting into the spirit of things, the Weather Bureau says the day will be cloudy, with occasional snow flurries.

The parade, led by Rainbow Division veterans, the National Guard's 89th Infantry and a squad of old-timers who fought in the Spanish-American War, steps off at 1 p. m. (E.S.T.).

Scores of other contingents, sons, grandsons and great-grandsons of the Emerald Isle and a hundred bands, five and drum and bugle corps get into the act that reaches from 44th to 96th street.

The parade is only a part of the celebrations in honor of the patron saint of Ireland. Dozens of parties and dances are scheduled tonight and tomorrow night.

One of the big events is the 165th annual St. Patrick's dinner tonight of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. James E. Forrestal, resigned secretary for defense, will be among the guests.

Russ Honor Inventor

Russia has placed a memorial plaque on Number 78, Nevsky Prospect, once the home of Capt. Alexander Mozhaisky, a pioneer of airplane design, Moscow reports. In 1878 Mozhaisky designed a monoplane in the shape of a boat having an undercarriage with wheels and a rudder. It was propelled by a steam engine. Patented in 1891, it was tested but had insufficient stability and its faults were never eliminated to enable further progress. John Stringfellow already had flown a model aeroplane powered by a small steam engine, at Chard, England, in 1848, but the first controlled power-driven flight was not made until 1903 by the Wright brothers.

New Wallpaper Line Added by Shapiro

A collection of hundreds of new wallpaper designs, the Nancy Warren Wallpapers, has been added to the stock of Shapiro's Paint and Wallpaper Store at 61-63 North Front street, it was announced today by Norman Shapiro.

With this new line of wallpapers is offered what is said to be the most remarkable and complete home decorating service ever devised by the wallpaper industry, a feature known as the Nancy Warren Style Selector, Shapiro said.

The Style Selector is actually three wallpaper books in one, containing a special device to make it easy for the homemaker to select the right patterns and colors for any room and for the entire home. The book unfolds to reveal a series of three separate collections of wallpaper patterns. In addition, the Style Selector contains style and color suggestion charts to guide the home decorator in making her selections.

America's Card Authority

Written for NEA Service

As youngsters we were taught to count 10 before saying something we might be sorry for. Here is a good rule for every bridge player to adopt—before playing to the first trick, count at least long enough to count 10.

I have seen experts take 20 minutes for thought before playing to the first trick in an important tournament match, yet the newcomer often calls out immediately the card to be played from dummy to the first trick.

When the dummy goes down, review the bidding in your mind. It will help you to place missing high cards. Then start to count your tricks. You may find that with a contract for 10 tricks, you can count only nine. Then you must look for a way to develop the 10th trick.

Today's play will look very easy to you because you can see all the hands. But suppose that you were looking only at the South cards and at the dummy in the North. When the jack of diamonds was led, would you go right up with the ace in order to discard a losing club from your hand? That would be the wrong play.

In order to make the contract, you have to find the king of clubs on your right, or you must get rid of both your small clubs. Therefore you must play the queen of diamonds from dummy on trick one, and discard the three of clubs from the South hand, when the queen holds the trick.

Then cash the ace of diamonds and discard the eight of clubs. You concede a heart trick and you have no problem. But if you go up with the ace of diamond at trick one, and the club finesse loses, you will lose a club and a heart.

Nearly 23,000,000 customers were served by gas utilities in the United States at the end of 1948.

Clemency Appeals Made to Dewey

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—Attorneys for three men scheduled to die April 14 for the slaying of boss stevedore Anthony Hintz made appeals for clemency to Governor Dewey yesterday.

Attorneys for two of the men, James M. Dunn, 36, and Daniel Gentile, 40, both of New York City, contended their clients were innocent. The counsel for Andrew Sheridan, 36, of Jersey City, N. J., asked clemency because he confessed shooting Hintz during a waterfront quarrel in New York City Jan. 8, 1947.

As is customary in such cases, Dewey made no comment after the hearings. The three were convicted Dec. 31, 1947, and sentenced to die in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair Aug. 23, 1948. Each however, was granted several respite pending determination of appeals by Dunn and Gentile for a reprieve.

They had based their pleas on a statement by Sheridan last summer that two other men—one dead and the other missing—had been involved in the shooting. Sheridan declared that Dunn and Gentile were innocent.

Their appeals were turned down by the Court of Appeals. Edmund Hunsley and Harry Anderson, both of New York City, represented Dunn and Gentile respectively at the hearing, while David L. Malpin of Brooklyn appeared for Sheridan.

Police Could Be Bandits

Maidstone, England (AP)—Plainclothesmen just had to investigate when they spotted a young farmer parked with his girl in an unlit car. In the case that ensued, one got pushed off the running board of the automobile. In court, the youth explained, "I didn't know they were police. I thought they were bandits." Good enough, said the court. Charged with assaulting and injuring the detective, he was acquitted.

SPRING OFFENSIVE IN THE COLD WAR

RUSSIA PREPS FOR ANOTHER ROUND IN COLD WAR: This map highlights significant developments in Communist strategy which indicate stepping up of the Soviet Cold War spring campaign in Eastern Europe. The events show that Russia is concentrating more on building up the Iron Curtain, following her drastic cabinet shakeup.

Gamblers Can Collect, Not Ladies of Evening

Gary, Ind., March 17 (AP)—Gamblers who are out of work probably can collect unemployment insurance in Indiana. But prostitutes can't. The distinction is that prostitutes are classified as independent contractors, says Lyman K. Bilts, manager of the Indiana Unemployment Compensation Bureau here.

The bureau noted an increase in claim files yesterday, a week after a throng of aroused Gary women had set off a war on crime and vice. Bilts said many of the men listed their trades as poker dealers, bet takers and slot machine maintenance men. He said the women admitted they were prostitutes.

"It looks like the gamblers will be paid $20 for 20 weeks unless they go back to work sooner because, under the law, I'm supposed to find work for them, and I certainly can't do that," Bilts said.

The anti-crime campaign started two weeks ago after the slaying of Miss Mary Cheever, 45-year-old Wallace High School teacher, who was shot in an alley near her home. Police attributed the shooting to a purse snatcher.

Four days later, more than a thousand Gary women held a mass meeting, marched on the city hall, where the council was meeting, and demanded that gambling and prostitution be halted. An all-out campaign followed. This week the women met again and named an 18-member secret vigilante group to work for law enforcement.

Kingston Radio Men Will Vote on Union

New York, March 17 (Special)—The New York Regional office of the National Labor Relations Board announced Wednesday an election to be conducted Monday among employees of the Kingston Broadcasting Corporation, 601 Broadway, Kingston, to determine whether the National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians Union will represent them in collective bargaining negotiations.

The union is seeking to be certified by the N.L.R.B. as the claimant to the allegiance of a majority of the eligible employees. The voting unit, the labor board ruled, consists of all transmitter engineers, announcers, announcer-operators and operator-announcers employed by Station WKNY. Office clerical employees and professional or supervisory employees are excluded.

Results of the vote will be announced by the regional office here.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

While watching the digging on lower Broadway at Strand for the new sewer and widening of the street, the workers called my attention to the planks dug up with square hand-made nails. Can this be part of the old Plank Road of Kingston?

With the breaking of the old sidewalk in front of the Downtown Community center much cobblestone has been dug up. Would that be the cobblestones of the gas-lit age in Kingston?

While a house was being remodeled on Pearl street, a complete well was found in the cellar which no doubt was in great demand by the entire household in the olden days. Who remembers those cellar wells?

Captain Andrew Hickey is interested in any items on the lighting system back from the kerosene lamp days. Who owned them, when they were established, etc.

In speaking of the reservoir near Ulster Academy, now known as No. 2 School, Morton Levine says the youngsters of the neighborhood used to play on its wooden cover and often got slivers in their hands from it. In fact they sometimes even used to drink the cold water which ran out of it.

How many Boy Scouts of the 1917 year or so remember pushing the Liberty Ball for patriotic causes. Did someone roll it from Saugerties at that time? What famous explorer, with his team of Eskimo dogs and sleigh came off one of the boats in Rondout to make a visit to Kingston?

Mentioning sturgeon caught in the Rondout creek, it was then fondly called Hudson River Horse, according to an old-timer, who also remembers the little mustang horses which were shipped to a horse-dealer on Ravine street near Abel. They were good horses but not quite broken in. No doubt it must have been quite a sight to see these temperamental steeds as they were auctioned off.

Who remembers how, why and when Kingston was somehow connected with the whale fishing of the Atlantic coast? I have been promised old newspapers, pictures, etc., on these various questions, but perhaps you folks know more about it from your own personal experiences which is always better.

GOOD NEWS GETS AROUND

Poland Pushes Port Plans
Swinoujscie, Poland (AP)—Poles are building Nazi Germany's famed submarine base of Swine-münde into a great hub for east-west traffic. The government intends to spend over $675,000 this year in rebuilding this war-damaged port and expanding facilities for handling trade.

Dealers Ask Law Be Amended as Regards Dry Areas

Local members of the Ulster County Hotel and Liquor Dealers Association are favoring introduction of legislation at this session to amend the Moore plan which now permits communities which have voted "dry" to participate in the revenues derived from the alcoholic beverage industry. At a recent meeting of representatives of the brewers, wholesalers, brewery workers union, the Culinary Workers Union and the State Restaurant Liquor Dealers Association it was agreed to seek a change in the Moore plan.

The move for a change in the Moore plan is made on the grounds that communities which have voted "dry" in local option contests during the past three years have used the propaganda that they would not be deprived of participating in alcoholic beverage revenue should they vote dry.

It is the desire of the industry to change the law so that communities which vote "dry" would not participate in this revenue, the industry contending that under the present law there is unfair distribution of these taxes, which have been used by the drys to destroy the industry which provides these taxes.

Reds Delay Italo Adherence to Pact

Rome, March 17 (AP)—Communists delayed Italian adherence to the Atlantic Alliance today by a filibuster in Parliament. They also churned up strikes in Milan and Genoa in protest.

Strong police detachments were thrown around government buildings in Rome and the Central Piazza Colonna, where authorities and demonstrators have fought in the past. The piazza, where rioting occurred Saturday, was kept clear by police.

Communists and fellow travelers kept up their word battle in the Chamber of Deputies all night and into today. It already is the longest filibuster on record in Italy. Premier Alcide De Gasperi has plenty of votes to assure adherence of Italy to the accord, once his solid Christian Democratic Party has the chance to cast them.

Actress Is Annoyed

New York, March 17 (AP)—Actress Ruth Chatterton, whose cooking allegedly caused "decidedly unpleasant" odors to permeate the Ritz Tower Hotel is "very much annoyed" by a suit against her and plans to move April 1. Her counsel so told Supreme Court Justice E. L. Hammer today when an injunction proceeding to prevent her from cooking in the apartment came up for hearing. Justice Hammer thereupon adjourned the case until April 7.

Army May Ask Law's Extension

Washington, March 17 (AP)—A hint that the army may ask Congress to extend the draft law next year came today from Maj. Gen. John E. Dahlquist.

General Dahlquist, the army's personnel chief, told a House Armed Services Subcommittee that, when present new enlistments begin expiring in 1951, "we may again be up against a serious situation."

The draft, which has been suspended since January because the armed forces are up to budgetary strength, will expire in June, 1950. The services are below strength authorized by the draft law because of limits on their appropriations.

The draft question came up as General Dahlquist testified on a bill to increase military pay generally. Armed Services Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) suggested that dropping enlistments for less than three years, and paying a large re-enlistment bonus, would make a draft unnecessary.

Vinson, a supporter of universal military training instead of the draft in peacetime, has announced his committee will investigate selective service operations this spring to see how much it is costing this country to maintain the unused draft machinery.

Change in Method Of Tax Work Given

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—A change in the method of computing state income tax on 1948 forms already printed and distributed is expected to result in headaches for both taxpayers and the State Tax Department.

The 1948 income tax, due on or before April 15, will be 90 per cent of normal tax.

Here is the correct procedure to be followed in computing your tax if you use long form number 201:

Answer questions as formerly except those under "calculation of normal and war bonus taxes" page 1.

When you answer questions 11 to 17 inclusive, proceed as usual through question 15 (gross normal tax).

On line 15a enter 90 per cent of the figure on line 15. This is your total tax and should be re-entered on lines 17 and 18. Ignore line 16 which specifies 10 per cent of the normal tax to be paid toward the war bonus. The bonus will be one-ninth of the tax you pay, but the Tax Department will figure it for you.

If you elect to use the optional short form number 200 answer questions one through eight in the computation column on the front of the card. On line nine fill in the figure for 90 per cent of the gross tax given on line 8. This is the tax you will pay.

Ignore line ten, which is listed as the war bonus tax.

Enter in line eleven the same figure as shown on line nine (total tax due).

May Immunize Humans

Cincinnati, March 17 (AP)—An injection which will immunize humans against the radioactivity of atomic explosions is a possibility, said Rear Admiral Lamont Pugh today. The Washingtonian, who is deputy and assistant chief of the Navy Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, made the statement at a news conference. He came to Cincinnati to address a Red Cross campaign luncheon.

Referendum Ends On Milk Order Change March 24

New York, March 17—Dairy farmers in the six-state New York milkshed have until midnight Thursday, March 24, to ballot on a proposed amendment to New York's federal and state milk marketing orders, it was announced here today by Dr. C. J. Blanford, the referendum agent.

Dr. Blanford, who is also administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, said the proposed amendment is concerned chiefly with the consolidation of all surplus milk classes into one class.

In the present orders, he said, milk in excess of fluid milk and cream requirements for the New York city market is divided among seven classes. The proposed amendment would also eliminate the two classifications of skim milk.

Dr. Blanford explained that all 45,161 producers who supplied the New York market last December are eligible to vote, either individually or through qualified cooperative associations. Approval of the amendment by at least two-thirds of the producers is required.

Independent dairymen numbering 14,925 are eligible to cast individual ballots as are 1,818 members of 11 cooperative associations. Sixty-one cooperative associations with 28,423 members have elected to cast collective ballots. Dr. Blanford said that an explanation of the amendment and ballots have been distributed throughout the milkshed.

While the referendum is actually being held on the federal milk marketing order, the New York state commissioner of agriculture and markets has announced he will base his findings with respect to an amendment to the joint and concurrent state order upon the result of the vote by New York state producers in the referendum on the federal order.

Russians Claim Two More Firsts

London, March 17 (AP)—Russia claimed two more firsts today in the field of invention.

Having already claimed the telephone, radio, electric light and airplane, among other things, as Russian inventions, Moscow radio said it was a Russian who had invented the "first" machine of perfected design.

Not only that, said a commentator but the same Russian, Andrei Martov, a mechanic in Peter the Great's workshop, also created the first "turbo-jet" he said it, said the radio, 40 years before the first Englishman did.

About the Folks

A son, Thomas Joseph Sutcliff, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Sutcliff, March 5, at Benedictine Hospital.

A report stating he is showing improvement has been received from Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, about the condition of the Rev. Stephen D. Conrad, pastor of Franklin Street A.M.E. Zion Church, and president of the Kingston Ministerial Association. He underwent an operation several weeks ago.

National Guard Drive Is Endorsed By Judge Cashin

County Judge John M. Cashin has issued the following statement in connection with the current recruiting drive of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion:

"To federalizers of the County of Ulster and City of Kingston:

It is my understanding that the National Guard is now having an active campaign, to increase the membership of the Guard. As far back as I can remember, Kingston has always been represented by a unit of the National Guard of the State of New York, and our particular National Guard outfit has always acquitted itself well and nobly. There are probably citizens who remember that the National Guard was federalized at the time of the Spanish-American War and the boys left Kingston and performed in very creditable fashion in that war.

Then again at the time of World War I, our National Guard members became attached to and were part of the famous 27th Division and saw active service in foreign fields, particularly in France. Some of the National Guard in that war became part of the 51st Pioneer Regiment, which also saw foreign duty and acquitted itself well.

In World War II, our National Guard unit was federalized and the boys of this vicinity were a credit to themselves, to the army and to the guard. They became part of the 44th Division and saw plenty of foreign service in the European sector.

Kingston has always been proud of its National Guard units and it is with a great deal of pleasure that I give my stamp of approval to the recruiting campaign that is now going on. It is now known as the 156th Field Artillery Battalion and has its headquarters in the armory located at the end of North Manor avenue in this city.

Some of the benefits which may accrue to the individual who enlists in the Guard, as I see them, are as follows:

To get training in a military unit that builds leadership and leadership is needed in this country now as never before. There is ample opportunity for every Guardsman to use judgment, imagination and initiative in meeting all situations. Each Guardsman is paid at the regular Army or Air Force rate for his training periods. There is no dislocation to the person who enlists in the Guard for the reason that he only has to drill one night a week for two days, for which he is paid, and go to camp two weeks each summer, for which he is paid at the rate to which his particular rank in the Guard entitles him. In addition thereto, he has the opportunity to learn technical skills and can be admitted to service schools which teach the Guardsman various things about trades which might be useful to him in his advancement as a private citizen.

I feel that any young man who is eligible to join the National Guard should avail himself of the opportunity. At least, he should go to the armory in the City of Kingston, where he will be advised of the benefits that might accrue to him.

I heartily endorse this drive and believe that all young men of suitable age, that is between the ages of 17 and 34, should carefully consider and weigh the opportunities that will be theirs if they join the National Guard.

Very truly yours,
JOHN M. CASHIN,
County Judge.

Bus Overturns, Burns

Barbourville, Ky., March 17 (AP)—A crowded southeastern Greyhound bus overturned and burned today when it plunged from the highway about eight miles south of here. About a dozen passengers suffered bruises and cuts but none was believed hurt seriously. The bus was northbound from Knoxville to Lexington, passengers said. The driver, whose name was not available immediately, said he was attempting to pass a truck when his front wheels struck a soft shoulder on the highway and plunged out of control.

Jury Gets Case

A civil action growing out of a collision at the entrance to Aero Lark Airport at Ulster Park was taken up in County Court Wednesday afternoon before a jury. Helena Price, who was a ground instructor at the airport, sues Joseph Wood for injuries as a result of the accident. Charles Gaffney appears for the plaintiff and Cook & Cook for the defendant. Testimony was concluded late Wednesday afternoon and this morning following summations and the charge by Judge Cashin the case was submitted to the jury.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 17 (AP)—Rising tendencies replaced early indecision in the stock market today.

While the forward movement was not a sweeping affair, the majority of issues scored gains of fractions to more than a point. A handful of small losses, notably in the rails and steels, also were posted.

Trading was again skinny, the ticker tape loafing along and frequently coming to a full stop. Brokers reported that there was nothing specific in the news to account for the expanded demand. They pointed out, however, that the price level has moved down every day in the week thus far following a slight Saturday to a top since Feb. 4.

Magnavox took another licking after dropping 1 1/2 yesterday. The price was marked down 2 points to a low for the year, apparently a reflection of price cutting in the radio and television fields.

Boosted a bit were Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Texas Co., Eastern Air Lines, Consolidated Edison, Consolidated Natural Gas, Phelps Dodge, American Can, du Pont, American Tobacco, E. W. Bliss, Texton, Douglas Aircraft, Caterpillar Tractor, Montgomery Ward, and Firestone Tire.

Losers included Pittsburgh & West Virginia (down 1 1/2 but an infrequent performer), U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Bendix Home Appliances, General Electric and Schenley.

Corporate bonds moved narrowly. U. S. Governments tended upward in over-the-counter dealings, in particular the 2 1/2 of September 1967-72 which are eligible for bank purchase.

Reds May Try To Cross Yangtze

Nanking, March 17 (AP)—Communist attempts to cross the Yangtze river appeared near today. At the same time Red uprisings in South China grew.

Government spokesman, Gen. Teng Wen-yi, announced 100,000 Manchurian Red troops had reinforced the Communists at Suchow, 180 miles northwest of Nanking. Other troops, under Red Gen. Lin Piao's command, were massed just north of the capital.

Teng said the main strength of Red Gen. Yi's Central China armies were heading for staging areas on the north bank of the river near Hankow.

Boats for the crossing were reported under construction. Posters in towns under Communist rule reportedly urged the Reds to seize Shanghai, Nanking and Hankow. The three large cities today draw 20 per cent of their food supplies from American aid. Their capture would pose a food problem for the Communists until crops are harvested.

Most observers guess the Communists will not try river crossings until sometime next month, probably the latter part.

Government commanders were caught in the middle. To the north were the Communist hordes. To the south uprisings led by Reds were reported in the provinces of Yunnan, Kwangtung and Hunan, and on Hainan islands.

Central News Agency said there were fears Kunming, capital of Yunnan, would be attacked. Other dispatches said Nationalist forces had lost all telegraphic contact with the southern part of Yunnan.

Philadelphia, March 17 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Seymour Levin was sentenced to life imprisonment today for the Jan. 8 sex slaying of a 12-year-old neighbor.

Three judges fixed the degree of guilt at first degree murder. The youth had pleaded guilty to a general charge of murder.

Testimony was heard two weeks ago in an effort to determine the degree of guilt.

The court's decision said that Levin:

"Knowing that the members of his family were absent, enticed into his home 12-year-old Ellis Simons, a stranger to him, and there committed upon that child an act of perverted sexual lust which an examination of the physical remains of the child incontrovertibly established."

According to a wall tablet in Florence, Italy, spectacles were invented in the 13th century by an inhabitant of that city.

Miss Elizabeth Virginia Booth, about 74, of Wellesley, Mass., an aunt of Mrs. Richard Gruver, of Hurley, died Wednesday afternoon at Brookline, Mass., after a brief illness. Miss Booth, who was well known in Woodstock, was born in Gary, Ind., and for many years was a prominent Indianapolis business woman as an operator of millinery establishments and a hat designer. She also had a store at Brazil, Ind. Miss Booth, who was the daughter of John and Susan Wright Booth, was a sister of the late Franklin Booth, noted artist, who died in New York in August, 1948. Another brother, Hanson Booth, prominent illustrator and long-time resident of Woodstock, died in 1943. Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Gruver, include a sister, Mrs. Paul Christian, of Edinburg, Ind.; a brother, Frederick Booth, of Daytona Beach, Fla.; a brother, newspaper editorial writer, publicist and author, and several nephews and nieces. Miss Booth was a direct descendant of Lady Christine MacGregor, of Scotland, who was one of the early landholders in Virginia and a close friend of Lord Cornwallis. British military commander during the Revolutionary period of American colonial history. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Eagle Plume Tells Of Indians' Plight In Talk at Club

Charles Eagle Plume of the Blackfoot Indian Tribe of Montana, called attention to the plight of the American Indian as he spoke to Kingston National Dinner Club Wednesday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Starvation on arid reservation lands, poor educational facilities and general neglect were enumerated as problems of America's original people.

"According to the Supreme Court of the United States, an Indian legally is a war captive who has no rights under the American Constitution," Eagle Plume explained. "Even former prisoners of war who have been freed in this country, to say nothing of the thousands allowed to come to America from other lands each year, can apply for citizenship," the speaker noted in contrast to the restrictions of the Indians. Congress did pass a law last August giving the Indian the right to vote.

Eagle Plume spoke of the contributions of the Indians, not only in many of the vegetable foods and scientific knowledge, but also the very roots of the American type of democracy which he claims originated in the Iroquois Indian Confederacy and not in Greece or Rome.

"Today's Indians are the neurotic results of generations living in concentration camps," the speaker admonished as he referred to life under the federal government on most Indian reservations.

Indians are not allowed to leave the reservations unless they can become self-supporting individuals. The reservations are set aside by the government and according to Eagle Plume are often of inferior land.

Starvation seeps the strength from the Indians and make them appear lazy to the tourist, the speaker pointed out.

"Poor people don't eat very well so they don't have much energy, some can't even seem to lift themselves up," he remarked.

For example, Eagle Plume mentioned the Navajo Indian tribe of 65,000 people living on a reservation which even the government authorities say could only support in poverty, 500 people. Next to the reservation are many fertile acres of free public grazing land, which the Indians are not allowed to use.

Also the 800 Hopi Indians live "atop a rock" in almost desert land. The young men must walk 12 miles each day to carry water for the sparse cultivation of corn which they try to raise on the reservation.

Possibility of improving educational facilities for the young people seemed slim as the speaker declared that in the most lenient year the federal government only provided enough schooling for 25 per cent of the Indian children. During the present winter, he believed that not more than 1 in 20 were able to attend school and Congress recently cut the appropriation once again.

Citing some of the educational equipment, Eagle Plume said that the schools were using books authorized by the federal government but these books were last authorized before the Civil War. In one Indian tribe in Colorado the young students are taught to be harness makers because the school was established in 1880 when harness was needed by the miners. Consequently the school was equipped with machinery for this purpose. Because this machinery is still good, the students are taught the trade, although in the world today, Eagle Plume questioned the future of such a trade.

Eagle Plume especially urged consideration for the Indian young people. He hoped they would be given the chance to learn to read and write and to take their place in the American community.

During the last war Eagle Plume reminded the audience that the "Indians had the highest racial percentage of boys to volunteer for service; second highest racial percentage of men decorated for heroism; and the highest racial percentage of men killed in it."

Tracing the development of civilization, the speaker pointed to the Iroquois Indian Confederacy as the originator of the kind of democracy found in the American government. The Iroquois were the first to recognize "the dignity of man as an individual human," Eagle Plume said.

Early explorers in the region of New York state carried back to Europe descriptions of this type of government. Washington wrote of the nature of the Iroquois government following his work in the wilderness of Pennsylvania. Thomas Paine wrote editorials about it; Jefferson favored it; and Madison wrote a description of the constitution of the Iroquois Confederacy, whole sentences of which are found in the Constitution of the United States of America, the speaker reported.

The discovery of new foods used by the American Indians saved the white race in Europe from the fatal plagues sweeping the countries because of unbalanced diet during the feudal age, Eagle Plume stated.

"The Indian contributed 25 of the 32 economically important vegetable foods," the speaker said. Among these were corn, potatoes, tomatoes, beans, squash and chocolate.

The search for these foods caused a complete change in the trade routes of the world and the general economic system of the day, the speaker reported.

Eagle Plume also reviewed some of the accomplishments of the Indian civilizations on the American continent. He reminded the people that the Aztecs in Mexico were using a more accurate calendar in the days of Cortez than the Gregorian calendar which is still in general use.

He spoke of the art of weaving developed to the highest degree by the Incas in Peru where the Indians wove as high as 150 threads to the square inch in manual weaving.

"Only two civilizations in the world are known to have originated the idea of using zero, a symbol for nothing, in calculations," Eagle Plume noted, "one was the Hindus and the other the Maya Indians."

To the white race he attributed the ability to accumulate all of the inventions and knowledge of other civilizations and races, to be used to further the development of civilization.

As he spoke he wore an Indian costume and several headaddresses, the meanings of which he explained. He performed a primitive dance emphasizing the one-two rhythm and also the style of Indian singing. He also did an eagle dance by donning huge arm coverings of feathers and a sweetheart dance with gay regalia of multicolored feathers.

He noted that the Indian children originated the game of jacks and mumble-the-peg and lacrosse. Although each tribe has its own language, usually most complex, Indians are able to converse through sign language use of the hands.

The Indians' conception of God as a mystery was instilled long before the missionaries of the church brought the idea of God as a great spirit, Eagle Plume explained. Most Indian prayers are short and are prayers of thanksgiving, expressions of gratitude. A typical prayer always given at the end of the day as the sun goes down was interpreted to mean,

"Great Mystery, you have given us a beautiful day. We thank you."

His talk was followed by a short question period. A number of those present signified that they would write to their congressmen concerning the plight of the Indians.

Alfred Schmidt, president of the club, presided at the short meeting prior to introducing the speaker. He named the following nominating committee to present a slate of officers for the coming year at the next meeting: Col. Ralph Ballard, Stuart Randall,

Miss Miriam Hallock and Warren Smith.

In addition to officers there will be two vacancies to fill on the board of directors; the term of Miss Florence Cordis expires and the vacancy caused by the death of Roy Sullivan.

Miss Ethel Hull asked the blessing before the meal.

Golden Gloves Champions Slated for March 24 Boxing Card Here

Fields, Costanza, Hardy, Tuttle Register Wins in Albany Finals

The B'nai B'rith boxing show in the municipal auditorium, Thursday night, March 24, will be a tournament of champions affair, presenting some of the greatest scrappers ever developed in the Adirondack Division of the A.A.U.

One entire side of the card will be made up of title-winners in last night's finals of the Golden Gloves at Albany, where 2,300 ring fans cheered themselves hoarse during the corking exhibitions sponsored by the Elks Club.

Singer Sees Show

At the ringside was Bill Singer, chairman of boxing for B'nai B'rith, and a delegation of 20 from the local organization, who reported today that the show was packed with action and plenty of thrills.

Singer said that the champs would be matched with the best available talent for his March 24 show in Kingston, and indicated that he would give some of the boys disappointed by losses in the Golden Gloves another crack at the victory.

"The policy of giving boxers another chance, even though it isn't for a title," he said, "makes for a good scrap, with lots of leather slinging. I'm sure our next show will be one of the best ever seen in the auditorium."

The Associated Press reported last night's Golden Gloves finals as follows:

Results of Finals

Albany, N. Y., March 17 (AP)—Eight young boxers, winners of the Adirondack District A.A.U. Golden Gloves Tourney, were ready today to seek greater ring laurels in the national finals in Boston next month.

The eight battlers won the right to enter the national finals last night by winning in their respective classes in district tournament at the Christian Brothers Academy gymnasium.

The eight district winners were Tito Arzangue of the Berkshire School, 112 pounds; Ray Fields, Utica, 126 pounds; Jim Costanza, Canastota, 147 pounds; Dick Tuttle, Gloversville, 160 pounds; Howard Keyes, Utica, 118 pounds; Bob Herrera, Schenectady, 135 pounds; Jim Hardy, Berkshire School, 175 pounds and Bob Yarbboro, Rome, heavyweight.

Fields and Tuttle defended the titles they won in the district finals last year.

Fields outpointed Rufus Rogers of Albany in their three-round final bout, while Tuttle knocked out Ken Cameron of Albany in 50 seconds of the first round of their go.

Howard Keyes of Utica won the 118-pound title by scoring a technical knockout over Harry Smith of the Berkshire School in 1:55 of the first round. The referee stopped the bout when Keyes opened a cut over Smith's eye.

Smith, who defeated Ray Hazard of Albany in the semi-finals, was selected as the outstanding fighter of the two-day show.

36-Hole Seminole Play Ends in Triple Tie

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 17 (AP)—The Seminole Club's rich 36-hole pro-amateur golf tournament ended in a three way tie for first place yesterday.

Henry Ransom, veteran professional of St. Andrews, Ill., won the individual medal play tournament—played simultaneously with the pro-amateur contest—for the second consecutive year.

Skip Alexander, Southern Pines, N. C., pro, and A. B. Chace, Providence, R. I., businessman; amateur George Rassmussen, Palm Beach and Ed Furgol, Detroit; and Joseph Scheerer, Newark, N. J., with Dave Douglas, Wilmington, Del., finished with 128's for 180 money.

Ransom carded a 35-32-67 for a 36-hole total of 137 to pick up $1,500 first money in the professional's tourney.

Jim Ferrier, San Francisco, who teamed with Cary Middlecott, Memphis, Tenn., over the week-end to win Miami's $10,000 four-ball, placed second in the medal play with 129. He won $1,000.

White Plains, N. Y.—Larry Lamsan, 128; Houston, Tex., outpointed Bernie Peters, 1304; Philadelphia, 8.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

By midnight Saturday, the mighty Mont Pleasant Red Raiders will appreciate how the Kentucky Wildcats and St. Louis Billiecons felt after their first round kayoes in the National Invitation Tournament.

Which means, briefly, that notwithstanding Mont Pleasant's terrific record (against whom? we ask) we are picking Kingston High to win Saturday's intersectional battle in Saratoga Springs. Just on a hunch and the happy coincidence that we have never seen a K.H.S. basketball squad beaten since Uncle Sam returned us to civilian life.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Key Brodhead and Marion Greco were standouts in the Journal-American tournament in New York. Both shot well over their regular average and figure to carve a slice of that prize melon. Other itinerant and tournament minded squads might be interested in the following information: The Freeman sports page carries all reports of local and tournament bowling when received. The paper publishes six days weekly, the address is Freeman Square, telephone number 5000 and copy must be in by 9 a. m. any morning after the tournament.

Of Men and Mice:

Fred "Sol" Elser, the popular restaurateur-boxing judge was invited to work the Adirondack A.A.U. Golden Gloves finals in Albany. The credit line for that recent whirling dervish bowling photo of Mayor Oscar Newkirk belonged to Charles J. Kelly, who did a brilliant job. It was inadvertently credited to The Freeman. Dot Murphy was wondering if we heard about her converting the 6-7-10 split. We did. Bert Shepard, 28-year old southpaw pitcher who lost his right leg in World War 2 and then joined the Washington Senators to pitch one game in 1945, will manage the Waterbury Timers of the Colonial League, replacing Mike Kash, who was sold to Raleigh. Frank Hornbeck reports that Perc Braddy, George Braddy and Frank Mauro, a sharpshooting trio of the Glasco Rod and Gun Club tried their luck at skeet shooting for the first time Sunday at Katrine. And wished they had stood in bed.

The Mayor of Cat Hollar tells this one: There is a yarn that the Ark stopped when a telephone pole poked a hole in the bow. Noah sent his pet dog to stop the leak, which he did by paking his nose in the hole. Dogs noses have been cold since.

The dog became tired. Mrs. Noah went down and put her foot into the hole—it follows women have had cold feet since. But the water kept coming in. Noah went down and sat on the hole. Ever since men have stood with their backs to the fire.

Jake Chichelsky's Corner:

The City Minor League will stage its annual banquet at Tommie's on April 4. Larry Bogert, the efficient, colorful president, predicts a good time for everyone. St. Peter's could use Father Herdogen to revitalize their fast fading squad. They are struggling in the second division after winning two consecutive championships. Outstanding split conversions recently were Reta Frederick 5-8-10; Joe Kessler 6-7-10; Warren Simmons 6-7-10; Len Feer 8-10; Phil Zachec 2-7-10 with a hook ball. Arthur Jansen of the alphabet soup firm informs us that Charlotte Lapine baked a very delicious cake for him and hubby Bill. We wonder when and where you are going to get that "600." Art? Local Hudson Valley keglers are burning the midnight oils concentrating on next season's rosters. (Ed. Note—You can say that again, Jake).

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: Many a man who can't give you a good definition of Liberty, will fight for it with all his blood.

Freeman Keglers Clinch Booster Loop Title for Second Consecutive Season

The Freeman keglers wrapped up another Booster Bowling League championship, their second consecutive title, Tuesday night at Ferraro's Bowlodrome by knocking off the runnerup Greenkill Rest club in two games.

As a result of Tuesday's matches, the league repeaters told a seven-game bulge with only six more games left in the regulation campaign.

Harold Steeger's 483 triple, top effort for the league, spearheaded the Freeman trundlers to their second straight championship. Steeger opened with 133 and came back with counts of 183 and 167.

Other members of the victorious team include Harold Miller, Andy "Curve, Ball" Campbell, John "600" Dittus and Bob Steeger. Campbell fired 473 Tuesday night to grab third place honors for the league.

The regulation Booster League schedule winds up Tuesday, March 29. The league will then launch a six-week "round robin" tournament.

Following Steeger's 483 triple honors Tuesday night, F. Calas posted the runnerup score of 475 on 157-162-156.

Other notable efforts include: Andy Campbell's 179-471; R. Adams 183-471; D. McConnell 171-464; W. Sickler 159-461; R. Steeger 182-452; D. Keyser 177-446; D. Korth 159-444; J. Cavo 184-442; and J. Howard 156-440.

Brooks Downs Warren, 125-73

Dave "Golden Boy" Brooks jumped off to an early lead Wednesday night in the city pocket billiard tournament at Nick Kaslich's parlors and went on to score a 125 to 73 victory over Stan Warren.

Books had high runs of 23, 18, 16 and 15 while Warren's best were 16, 15 and 10.

Last night's victory was a big ore for Brooks who now holds undisputed possession of the tournament lead with five wins and no setbacks.

Gus Schrowang was referee for last night's match.

The usual Friday night competition has been postponed. The next match on Sunday will feature Harry Markle and Frank Schilling at 7:30 p. m.

Seeks Triple Crown

New York, March 17 (AP)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales begins his quest for an unprecedented triple crown today in the opening session of the National Indoor Tennis Championships. The 20-year-old Mexican-American youth from Los Angeles will try to add the indoor title to the National Outdoor and National Clay Court Championships he already holds. No player ever has won all three crowns simultaneously. Several have held the turf and clay titles at the same time but only four: Jack Kramer, Rene Lacoste, Bill Tilden and Bobby Riggs—have captured the indoor championship while reigning as outdoor king.

The 1948-49 basketball season in Madison Square Garden comes to a grand climax on April 2 with the playing of the annual East-West college all-star game.

Champs Tourney Seats Are on Sale

Announcement today that the B'nai B'rith boxing card of Thursday, March 24, is to be a tournament of champions, featuring Albany Golden Gloves winners, is expected to bring a deluge of applications for ringside and reserved seats.

Leonard Miller, ticket chairman, advised that reservations be made at B'nai B'rith club by those who desire choice chairs, instead of calling him personally at his place of business because he has no seat chart there and can't accept orders.

Guardsmen Wallop St. Remy, 81 to 45

With DeForrest Shaver and Hylar Van Wageningen bucketing 23 and 22 points respectively, Headquarters Battery of the 156th Field Artillery registered an easy 81 to 45 victory over St. Remy Wednesday night at the state armory.

Shaver glenned his 23 points on 11 fields and a foul while Van Wageningen wished the cords for 11 fields. Jack Keating followed the two top scorers with 18 markers.

R. Emerson was high for the losers with 14.

Bowling

Frank Bartlett led a high scoring session of the Central Rec League, Tuesday night at the Central Rec drives with a 602 triple. Bartlett blasted 225 in his opening game and came back with heavy counts of 202 and 175.

The top "500" was turned in by Jack Martin who fired 211-575.

Elsewhere in the circuit good scores were numerous. Ernie "Swede" Magnusson bashed 203-568; Earl Sleight 231-564; Carl Lundquist 212-562; Jim Costello 192-553; Ed Auchmoody 203-549; Nick Turk 203-542; Coke Costello 212-540; C. Beatty 210-539; Larry Peterson, Sr. 191-538 and Stan Warren 183-536.

Jansen Hits 563

Margie Jansen, who has been reported to be one of the most promising rookie keglerettes of the 1948-1949 bowling season, continued her stellar performance Wednesday night by grabbing top honors in the Colonial Women's League on the strength of her solid 563 blast.

A consistent top performer in recent weeks, Mrs. Jansen unceremoniously a 214 opener last night and after dipping to a 149 middle effort, bounced back with 199 to complete her 563 series.

It was a big night for the Colonial Women's league, too, as they turned in 10 500 triples or better. Holding down the runnerup slot was petite Betty Bailey who fired 174-173-210 for 557; Mary Bonacci rapped 191-553; Doris Wolf; Phyl Gehlinger 204-545; B. Lynn 215-535; Charlotte Lapine 191-529; H. Bordenstein 189-512; Bev Maricle 220-508; and Faye Horne 186-500.

Also in the lineup were Marie Keenig with 173-188; Mae Martin with another good night of 157-483; Evelyn Gross 177-480; M. Smith 196-480; Betty Bruck 184-480; Bea Barley 192-479; and Carrie Mohr 188-479.

Fannie Battagino walked off with triple honors in the Sunshine Women's League at the Bowldrome last night with a 434 triple on counts of 136-175-123.

Second place honors went to Barbara Landers who fired 187-415.

Other notable efforts were turned in by Gloria Van Loan with 161-404; Joan Bruck 157-396; Doris Strubel, 135-384; Theresa Gregory 131-384; and Dottie Simmons 148-377.

In a low scoring session at the Bowldrome Wednesday night Frank Leskie paced the Catholic League with a 552 triple on games of 156-177-229.

Other "500" members included Joe Fautz with 183-536; J. Sweeney 192-524; Ed Schupp 181-522; Ken Radel 178-503; and Pete Tatarzewski 182-501.

Hertica fired 201-493 and Ed Murphy had 201-490 for consolation positions.

Cinderella Cagers Await Semi-Finals Of Tourney Play

New York, March 17 (AP)—Four Cinderella teams battle tonight in the semi-finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

Loyola of Chicago, conqueror of mighty Kentucky, meets Bradley, upset winner over Western Kentucky, at 8 o'clock (E.S.T.) in Madison Square Garden.

These four teams—of the 12 that started the tournament—weren't even supposed to still be in town. The script called for them to bow out gracefully during Monday's games. Instead, they tossed the script out the window in the greatest series of upsets in basketball history.

Ever since Monday night, the guys who like to wager a dollar or two on the college boys have been scurrying around trying to find "the line." This morning Bowling Green was favored by five points and Loyola by three.

None of the four teams has ever won the invitation. Loyola reached the finals in 1939, the only other time it was entered.

Bowling Green has tried four times previously, getting as far as the finals in 1945. Bradley has been in it three times, but never past the semi-final round. San Francisco is trying its luck for the first time.

The original seedings, which were wiped away Monday, listed Bradley fifth, followed in order by San Francisco, Bowling Green and Loyola.

Bowling Green, which owns the poorest season's record of the bunch, is riding the crest of a 15-game winning streak that dates back to January 11 when it lost to Kentucky by two points.

Altogether the Falcons have won 23 and lost six, including their two tournament victories. Bradley has the best mark—27 and six. Loyola won 24 while losing five and San Francisco won 23 and lost five.

The finals will be played Saturday night with tonight's losers meeting in a third-place game.

The trout, most beautiful and highly prized of American freshwater fish, is closely related to the salmon.

Tourney Boss

BEN M. BECKER

A happy man today was Ben M. Becker, assistant principal of Schuyler High School, Albany, and chairman of boxing in the Adirondack District of the A.A.U. Reason: Last night's finals in the upstate Golden Gloves tournament sponsored by Albany Elks Club.

Was classed as one of the best ever held in the capital city. Becker has been connected with Adirondack A.A.U. boxing for about two decades, and has been supervising the sport in Kingston ever since the days when the American Legion and the Mayor's Industrial Committee sponsored the sport prior to World War 2.

When B'nai B'rith revived boxing he returned as supervisor. He has coached championship football and basketball teams at Schuyler High, and at present is personal supervisor of an athletic program at the executive mansion for the two young sons of Governor Dewey.

The governor who takes a turn at conditioning himself in the gym likes Becker's methods. Warring the war he served as a lieutenant commander in the navy.

Training Camp News in Brief

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17 (AP)—The New York Yankees promised a statement today regarding the condition of Joe DiMaggio. The Yankee Clipper has been bothered by his heel which was operated on during the winter. His physician, Dr. George Bennett of Baltimore, arrived here yesterday for a vacation.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 17 (AP)—Billy Rigney, New York Giant infielder who collapsed during a game Sunday, was expected back in uniform today. Rigney was treated at a Phoenix hospital for a heart condition. Johnny Mize, who has been nursing a bruised knee, also figures to be ready for action within a day or so.

Dodgers Resume Drills

Vero Beach, Fla., March 17 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers went back to full scale drills today after losing their first exhibition game in four starts. The Philadelphia Athletics beat them 4-3, in 11 innings yesterday. The Dodgers don't have another game scheduled until Saturday when they meet the A's again.

Tucson, Ariz., March 17 (AP)—Young pitchers get the call again today for the Cleveland Indians. Dick Rezek and George Anderson, southpaws, and Will Hafey, a right-hander, will do the hurling against the Chicago White Sox. The Tribe sent two rookies against the Sox yesterday with good results. Lyman Lunde and Mike Garcia throttled Chicago 4 to 2 on six hits, Lunde getting credit for the win. Coach Bill McKechnie says "We might as well use the young fellows against the weaker clubs."

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17

(AP)—The Detroit Tigers led with their ace today as Manager Red Rolfe named Hal Newhouser, top American League winner of 1948, to hurl an exhibition game against the New York Yankees.

It was the first Grapefruit League Clash for Detroit with a rival from the American League. Yesterday's 7-2 victory over the Boston Braves left the Tigers with an even break in four games with National League clubs.

Tommy Holmes, leading Boston Brave hitter for three of his seven seasons, got his solid wrists as a result of bag punching.

Dennis to Plead His Own Case as Reds Go to Trial

New York, March 17 (AP)—Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the American Communist party, received court permission today to defend himself at the trial of 11 Communist leaders.

However, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina warned him "You are taking a chance here," adding "You are not competent to understand certain legal matters."

Dennis, the top-ranking official among the 11 defendants, notified the judge of his decision as a court session to pick four alternate jurors began.

Late yesterday selection of 12 jurors to try the high Communists was completed. The jury was quite different from the kind de-

Two Agree to Cut In Size of Forces

Rhodes, March 17 (AP)—Israel and Trans-Jordan agreed in principle today on a reduction of their forces to equal strength in military zones of Palestine. Acting U.N. Mediator Ralph Bunche announced.

The two nations, engaged in armistice talks, agreed last night on lines dividing Jerusalem among them.

Bunche said Brig. Gen. William F. Riley, the American who heads the staff of U.N. observers, will go to the Red Sea 'Trans-Jordan port to the Red Sea and make a final report of events there. The Israelis occupied the Palestine Red Sea coast opposite Aqaba, where British troops are stationed. Trans-Jordan protested.

Riley also was named chairman of a committee of military experts to supervise equalization of Israeli and Trans-Jordan troops.

The Jewish and Trans-Jordan delegates agreed the reduction of forces would be broken down into three areas. One is north from a point called Budrus at the beginning of the front held by Iraqi troops, down to the Jerusalem sector and the true lines set on Nov. 30. The second area is the Jerusalem sector. The third is the eastern Negev south of the Dead Sea.

As of January 1, 1949, there were 865,000 veterans in federal employment, of whom 113,700 were disabled.

Eire Has Big 'St. Pat's' Parade

Dublin, Eire, March 17 (AP)—Green-clad pipers led soldiers and marines in a parade through Dublin's flag-decked streets on this St. Patrick's Day as thousands turned out in honor of Ireland's patron saint.

Prime Minister John Costello and other Eire officials returned the marchers' salutes from the steps of historic Parliament House. Shamrock wearing Dubliners cheered lustily as the parade passed.

Later, President Sean T. O'Kelly led government officials and Dublin city leaders on a state drive to Dublin's Pro-Cathedral where a high Mass was said.

After the ceremonies, crowds scattered to see horse races and football games. In the villages tonight young and old will frolic at cauldries (dances).

Police banned parading in towns along the border with Northern Ireland where Eire's patriots sometimes get riotous over the partition question.

Mexican Police Check On Uranium Theft

Mexico City, March 17 (AP)—A supposed theft of refined uranium from a U. S. atomic laboratory is being investigated by Mexican secret police.

A month ago a Mexican was arrested with a small cylinder of uranium, police said, but newspapers were asked then not to publish the information.

The uranium was said by the police to have been earmarked for shipment to Panama.

The arrest of the Mexican with the uranium has been kept secret to give U. S. agents time to inquire into the case and to locate a man who might know something of the theft from the U. S. atomic laboratory.

Rochester Taxpayers Hear of Organization

According to Charles Freedman of Accord, 300 residents of the area attended the Town of Rochester Taxpayers Association meeting, Wednesday night, in the Community Hall, to hear the aims and purposes of the organization. He said membership in the association is about 100.

David Derringer, chairman of the session, said the association is non-partisan and desires to promote closer cooperation between taxpayers and the town board so that recommendations and suggestions may be made as to more economical operation of town government.

John Hilton of the Saugerties association explained details of conducting a taxpayers' unit and answered questions.

Freedman in his talk complained about a 100 per cent increase in taxes over a two-year period and was of the opinion that a taxpayers' group might help. Members of the organizing committee are David Derringer, Wade Mealing, Earl Deyo, Earl Schuler, Dorothy Barley and Charles Freedman.

A PUBLIC NOTICE TO:

Governor Thomas E. Dewey
State Senator Lee B. Mailler
State Senator Steingut

WE MUST TAKE THIS PUBLIC METHOD OF NOTIFYING YOU BECAUSE OF THE UNSEEMLY HASTE OF BOTH MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES IN DEALING WITH VITAL LEGISLATION. Three bills are being rushed thru the State Senate and Assembly WITHOUT public hearings. It is urgent that you hold full and open hearings on bills which deal with Civil Rights. These bills threaten Trade Unions, Progressives and minority parties. We of the American Labor Party want to ensure democratic legislation.

The following bills are the anti Civil Rights bills and we urge the public to support our stand by communicating with you.

Bill No. 1 Assembly PR1785
Senate PR2324
Bill No. 2 Assembly PR1756
Senate PR2327
Bill No. 3 Assembly 13059
